Ethics — Everyone’s Responsibility

Because taxpayers fund housing assistance programs like the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Program, just the appearance of fraud or corruption in the system could affect the public’s confidence in the Program.

If the public does not trust in the HCV Program, the Program could lose public funding. Therefore, it is imperative that everyone involved in the Program look out for fraud or corruption within the system.

CHA has developed an ethics policy to fight fraud and corruption by preventing employees and sub-contractors from using or appearing to use their position for personal gain.

Some examples of staff actions prohibited by CHA’s ethics policy include:

- Accepting gifts of any value at any time
- Charging an Applicant, Voucher Holder or Participant any fees for HCV Program-related services (excluding exceptions defined in the CHA Administrative Plan)
- Passing a unit that fails a Housing Quality Standards (HQS) inspection in exchange for any gift, payment or favor
- Improperly approving any Program transaction in exchange for any gift, payment or favor
- Owning or having a controlling interest in a property involved in the HCV Program
- Charging fees for a better place on any waiting list

If you witness a CHA employee asking for money, gifts or favors in exchange for HCV Program-related services, off-hours services or construction services, do not accept the offer and immediately call the CHA Fraud Hotline at 800-533-0441. Staff will handle your call promptly and confidentially.

In addition, do not offer or send gifts or favors of any kind to CHA employees (including tips, food or drink). To thank an employee for a job well done, write a letter to the deputy program director about the employee’s great work.

Important! Side Payments are Strictly Forbidden

Collecting side payments from HCV Program Participants is a serious offense and punishable under federal law. If an Owner or Property Manager asks for a payment outside the agreed upon rent, immediately report it to CHA. A Participant or an Owner or Property Manager that pays or collects a side payment will be removed from the HCV Program and/or prosecuted for a federal crime.
Fair Housing

What is Fair Housing?
It is important to understand the basic rights provided to you under Fair Housing laws. The premise is simple: everyone has the legal right to live anywhere he/she wants (and can afford) to live. Fair Housing laws apply to both individuals and families whether they are Voucher Holders or not.

There are different laws that protect you from discrimination based on the following:

- race
- religion
- gender
- ancestry
- disability
- military discharge status
- color
- national origin
- age
- familial status
- gender identity
- source of income

Owners must consider the voucher as a source of income when determining an individual’s suitability as a tenant.

Fair Housing does not mean that Owners are required to rent to anyone who comes through the door. Owners have the right to screen applicants based on legal guidelines and procedures. The screening process will vary. Some Owners-Managers will just talk to you and make a decision. Other Owners will require you to go through a formal screening process that may include:

- Checking credit history and references
- Conducting a criminal background check
- Reviewing previous rental history
- Filling out an application form

Fair Housing requires an Owner to treat all applicants the same. For example, if an Owner conducts home visits as a part of their screening process, they must conduct home visits for every applicant. If the screening uncovers information that indicates that you may not pay the rent on time or that you may damage the property, then the Owner does not have to accept you as a tenant. On the other hand, if you meet the Owner’s criteria, he/she must accept you — regardless of whether or not you are a Voucher Holder.

Did you know?
To report housing discrimination or to learn more about Fair Housing laws, contact HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity at 312-353-7776 or 800-765-9372. You may also contact CHA Fair Housing Support at 312-913-7062.
What are my legal rights under Fair Housing laws?
Fair Housing is your legal right. If you are denied your housing rights, you may be experiencing housing discrimination.

Under the Fair Housing Act, it is against the law for Owners or Property Managers to:
- Refuse to rent housing to a qualified applicant
- Tell a prospective tenant that housing is not available when it is available
- Only show a prospective tenant apartments or homes in certain neighborhoods
- Advertise housing to preferred groups of people only
- Harass, coerce, intimidate or interfere with anyone exercising or assisting someone else with Fair Housing rights

Where can I find more information?
Please see HUD’s “Are You a Victim of Housing Discrimination?” brochure and CHA’s Fair Housing Act Information sheet located on pages 79-84 in the Fair Housing Resources section of this Reference Guide.

Note: Reasonable Accommodations
If you or anyone in your family is a person with disabilities and you require a specific accommodation in order to fully utilize our Program and services, please contact the CHA Customer Call Center at 312-935-2600 or hcv@thecha.org.

CHA asks that Applicants, Voucher Holders and Participants make requests for reasonable accommodations in writing using the Reasonable Accommodation Request form (see pages 71-73 in the Resources for People with Disabilities section of this Reference Guide).
Things You Should Know

Don't risk your chances for Federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application forms.

Purpose
This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

Penalties for Committing Fraud
The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house:
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received:
- Fined up to $10,000:
- Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.

Your State and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.

Asking Questions
When you meet with the person who is to fill out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, ask for clarification. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is.

Completing The Application
When you answer application questions, you must include the following information:

Income
- All sources of money you or any member of your household receive (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.):
- Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.):
- Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit; dividends from stock, etc.):
- Earnings from second job or part time job:
- Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive)

Assets
- All bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc., that are owned by you and any adult member of your family's household who will be living with you.
Any business or asset you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value, such as your home to your children.

The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you, whether or not they are related to you.

Signing the Application

- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.

Recertifications

You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must recertify. You must report on recertification forms:

- All income changes, such as increases of pay and/or benefits, change or loss of job and/or benefits, etc., for all household members.
- Any move in or out of a household member; and,
- All assets that you or your household members own and any assets that were sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value.

Beware of Fraud

You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:

- Do not pay any money to file an application;
- Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list;
- Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease;
- Get a receipt for any money you pay; and,
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (such as maintenance charges).

Reporting Abuse

If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements, report them to the manager of your complex or your PHA. If that is not possible, then call the local HUD office or the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline at (800) 347-3735. You can also write to:

HUD-OIG HOTLINE, (GFI) 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, DC. 20410.
Program Overview

What is the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Program?
The HCV Program helps low-income families, the elderly and people with disabilities pay for housing (apartments, duplexes, condominiums, single-family homes and townhouses). The Program helps low-income families to afford safe, decent and clean homes. We call people that find housing through the Program Participants.

As an HCV Program Participant, you will pay the Owner or Property Manager a portion of the rent for the unit you live in and CHA will pay the rest.

Who manages the HCV Program?
Congress created the HCV Program by passing a law called the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) gives money to the Chicago Housing Authority to run the Program in Chicago. HUD also makes the rules that CHA must follow.

Four groups work together each day to make the HCV Program work:
- U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
  Federal agency that makes rules about the Program and gives money to local agencies like CHA to run the Program
- Chicago Housing Authority (CHA)
  Local agency that decides who can join the Program and pays part of families’ rent to Property Owners/Managers
- Property Owners/Managers
  Individuals that own/manage a property, choose Voucher Holders as tenants and sign contracts (leases) with them to rent their units
- Participants
  Individuals that work with CHA to find, move to and pay for housing and follow the HCV Program rules and regulations

- Give CHA any information needed to make sure you still qualify for the Program
- Keep the unit in good, safe, decent and sanitary condition

What is the Property Rental Assistance (PRA) Program?

The Property Rental Assistance (PRA) Program is an innovative strategy to ensure reliable, long-term affordability of quality housing. The program commits project-based vouchers to privately-developed and owned housing units in properties within Chicago’s stable and revitalizing neighborhoods.

The PRA Program is CHA’s version of HUD’s Project-Based Voucher (PBV) Program using funds from the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Program. Under the PRA Program, CHA attaches subsidy to specific housing units in multi-family developments in Chicago.

PRA Program Objectives:

- Expand affordable housing opportunities throughout Chicago
- Provide Owners with reliable and straightforward rental income
- Ensure long-term affordability at quality properties
- Provide housing options for specific populations such as:
  - Homeless
  - Veterans
  - Intergenerational housing
  - Persons with specific disabilities
What is the difference between the HCV Program and the PRA Program?
Under the tenant-based HCV Program, CHA issues a voucher to an eligible family and the family selects an available unit of its choice. If the family moves out of the unit, the contract with the Owner ends and the family can move with continued assistance to another unit.

Under the PRA Program, the rental assistance is attached to the unit. CHA enters into an assistance contract with the building Owner for specified units and a specified term (5 to 30 years). CHA then refers families from its waiting lists to the Owner/Developer to fill vacancies. If a lease-compliant family moves after two years the family may receive a tenant-based voucher if one is available.

What families are eligible to obtain PRA Program housing?
CHA refers families who are on the CHA’s property-based waiting list and the public housing waiting list to Owners of PRA Program units. Under specific conditions, Owners may refer families to be placed on the waiting lists.

Owners screen and select families for occupancy. CHA calculates the amount that a family will pay for rent based on a family’s income.

Who screens the tenants for the assisted units?
Owners set their own property-specific tenant screening and selection criteria, which must apply to all the units at a property regardless of whether it receives PRA Program subsidy. The lease used for participating properties must comply with the Chicago Residential Landlord Tenant Ordinance. CHA will review the Tenant Selection Plan to ensure compliance with Fair Housing and the PRA Program.

What are examples of typical screening criteria?
Typical screening criteria includes: payment history of rent and utility bills; criminal background checks/drug-related criminal activity; home visits to assess housekeeping skills/ability to care for a unit.

Owners may also have a working/attending school preference (such as 20 hours per week) and may opt to conduct annual drug testing for all adults residing at the property.

How are tenants referred to PRA Program units?
CHA will refer prospective tenants to the Owner to fill vacant units. 50% of these referrals will be from the Public Housing Program (current residents, Relocatees and the general waiting list) and 50% will be from the HCV Program waiting list, which may include geographic preferences based on the neighborhoods of current residence or employment.

What are the income limits?
The income limit is 80% of median income as established by HUD annually.

How much rent do PRA Program tenants pay?
PRA Program tenants pay 30% of their adjusted income for rent. The tenant’s rent amount is reduced by a utility allowance if the tenant pays for utilities such as gas and electricity.
How often are family income re-examinations?
Families must have their income re-examined and calculated at least every two years. Families that have “no income” must report any increases in income within 30 days. The rules for re-examination are the same as those for the HCV Program. For more information about CHA’s re-examination policies, please see page 50.

Note: CHA has exemptions from certain HUD income calculation rules for both PRA and HCV Programs.

How much is the PRA security deposit?
The owner sets the security deposit amount which must be in compliance with State and Chicago landlord-tenant laws.

Can families move and still receive assistance?
If a family lives in a PRA unit for at least two years, the family may request a voucher to move. If a voucher is available, the tenant will be issued one. If a voucher is not immediately available, CHA will give the tenant priority to receive the next available voucher.

What are the family’s responsibilities under this Program?
• Comply with Family Obligations and other Program rules
• Comply with the terms of the lease
• Permit housing inspections
• Report changes in income and household composition, as required by CHA and the lease
• Maintain the unit in good condition

What is the Moderate Rehabilitation Program?
Just like the PRA Program, Moderate Rehabilitation (Mod Rehab) subsidy is also tied to the specific building and you must live in the assigned unit in order to receive rental assistance from CHA. The goal of the Moderate Rehabilitation Program is to upgrade substandard rental housing and provide rental subsidies for low-income families. In order to continue to receive Mod Rehab assistance you must live in an approved building. If you receive Mod Rehab assistance and move from the unit, you may lose your rental assistance.

The Moderate Rehabilitation Program also provides Single Room Occupancy (SRO) units for homeless individuals.

What steps do I take as a Participant?

1. Apply and Interview — If you are chosen from the waiting list, you will need to give CHA details about your income, the names of your family members, Social Security numbers for those members and other information as a part of the application process. CHA has established a special preference for families that are currently working. Therefore, families that are not currently working will be selected from the waiting list after all other qualified working preference families have been provided assistance. In addition, every household member that is 18 years or older must pass a criminal background check.

2. Attend Voucher Briefing — To receive your voucher, you must go to a voucher briefing. At the briefing you will learn about the Family Obligations (rules of the Program), how to find a place to live, how to keep your unit in good condition, how to stay on the Program, how to be a good neighbor and other information.

3. Use Your Voucher — CHA will give you information to help you find a unit, but you will need to find your own place to live. During your search, you will need your voucher and a Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) packet. You will find a sample of the forms included in this packet on pages 134-143 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide.

4. Await Inspection Results — CHA will need to inspect the unit you want to rent before you can live there. The unit must meet CHA’s and HUD’s Housing Quality Standards. If it does, you can move in. If it does not, the Owner will need to make repairs and get another inspection before you can move.

5. Await Rent Decision — The Owner will tell CHA how much the unit’s rent should be. CHA will decide if their rent request is reasonable.

6. Sign the Lease — You will sign a lease with the Owner. The lease is an agreement between you and the Owner, not CHA. He/She will also give you a copy of the Tenancy Addendum to add to the lease terms.

7. Move in, Pay Rent and Utilities — Once you and the Owner have turned in all of the required paperwork to CHA, you will move in. Each month, you will pay your portion of the rent to the Owner or Property Manager and CHA will pay the remaining amount.

8. Be a Positive Part of the HCV Program — To remain in the HCV Program and continue receiving rent assistance from CHA, you will need to follow all of the rules and regulations written in your Family Obligations, the lease, the Tenancy Addendum and any additions to the lease. You will also need to take part in inspections and re-examinations as long as you participate in the Program.
Step 1 — Apply and Interview
If you are reading this Reference Guide, you have probably already gone through the application and interview process. Applicants receive this guide when they attend the voucher briefing.

Who can take part in the HCV Program?
If a family wants to participate in the HCV Program, the following must be true:

- The family is on the HCV Program waiting list—families that relocate from public housing or from another Housing Authority do not need to be on the waiting list
- The family passes a background check
- The family’s income is not more than HUD’s income limits for Chicago

How does the waiting list work?
The HCV Program waiting list is closed for now. CHA opened the list in 2008. Families applied and a computer randomly chose 40,000 names for the waiting list. When CHA re-opens the HCV Program waiting list, we will advertise the re-opening in local newspapers and at social service agencies.

Relocation from Public Housing
A family may join the HCV Program without being on the waiting list if they relocate from public housing that will be demolished. CHA also gives these families that live in public housing the opportunity to relocate to other Chicago neighborhoods using a voucher.

Porting
If a voucher family relocates from another Housing Authority in a different city or state to Chicago (this is called porting), they may join the Program without being placed on the waiting list and still use a voucher.

A family may also use their CHA-issued voucher to port to another Housing Authority’s jurisdiction.

Why would CHA reject my application and what can I do about it?
To evaluate your application, CHA will consult a HUD database of information about former Participants in any HUD rental assistance program. The database includes information about any debts a former Participant may owe to any Public Housing Authority (PHA) or reasons a PHA terminated a Participant’s rental assistance due to a program violation. See the HUD advisory “Debts Owed to Public Housing Agencies and Terminations” found on pages 110-111 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide for more information.

CHA might reject an application to the HCV Program for the reasons below:

- The family owes money to CHA or another PHA in another city or state
- CHA or another PHA evicted a member of the family from rent-assisted housing in the last five years
- CHA or another PHA terminated program assistance for any member of the family within the last 10 years (excluding voluntary terminations)
If CHA denies your entry into the Program, you will receive a denial letter that will tell you the reasons for the rejection as well as how you can schedule an Informal Review to take a second look at the decision.

Informal Review
If CHA rejects your application, you have the right to an Informal Review. You have 10 days after you receive a denial letter to ask CHA for an Informal Review (see page 148 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide for a sample Ineligibility and Right to Informal Review Notice). A hearing officer that did not help make the original decision will review your case. CHA will send you a letter about the final decision within 30 days of the Informal Review.

What are the income limits for the Program?
To qualify for the HCV Program in the Chicago metro area, your income must be less than or equal to the limits written in the table below (based on the number of people in your family):

FY 2011 Income Limits Table

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Median Income</th>

</tr>
</tbody>

When your name reaches the top of the waiting list — or if you are a relocatee or a family porting from another Housing Authority — you will complete an application. On the application, you will give CHA information about your income and your family composition.

How does CHA calculate my income?

Annual Income
To decide how much you will pay for rent and utilities in your new home, CHA will add up any income (money or other forms) that you or your family members receive. The amount of rent you have to pay and the amount that CHA pays will depend on your income. While CHA may not count all of your income, you must report all of it. Based on HUD rules, CHA will decide what income will or will not be counted, as shown on page 22.
The table below contains some examples of income:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Income CHA will count</th>
<th>Income CHA will NOT count</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<td>Live-in aides' income</td>

<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Welfare Income Reduction Due to Fraud or Program Violation

If a family member receives welfare income and the amount is reduced due to fraud or a violation of the welfare agency’s rules, CHA will continue to count the original income amount. For example, if a family received $500 a month in benefits from a welfare agency, but the agency reduced the payment to $300 a month because of fraud, CHA will still count the income source as $500 a month. CHA will verify the amount, the terms and the reason for the payment reduction with the welfare agency.

Adjusted Income

CHA calculates your adjusted income by taking your annual income and subtracting the following deductions approved by HUD:

- $480 for each child under the age of 18 and for people 18 and above that are full-time students or persons with disabilities (not including heads of household or their spouses)
- One-time $400 deduction if the head of household or spouse is 62 or older or a person with a disability
Step 1 — Apply and Interview

- Reasonable childcare costs for children 12 years old and younger that allow a family member to work, attend school full-time or find employment
- Medical expenses for a head of household that is elderly or a person with a disability
- Medical expenses for all family members that are greater than 3 percent of your annual income
- Disability assistance expenses that are greater than 3 percent of your annual income that allows a family member with a disability to work

Once CHA accepts a family for the HCV Program, CHA will verify the family’s income, process all documentation and give them a voucher. The voucher allows a family to start looking for a place to live.

How much rent will I pay as a Participant?

Total Tenant Payment (TTP)
Your Total Tenant Payment is the minimum amount you will pay for rent and utilities such as cooking gas, heating gas and electricity. The Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) form and lease will say what utility bills you need to pay.

CHA calculates your TTP based on your income.

Your TTP is the greatest amount of those below:
- 10 percent of your family’s gross monthly income (your annual income, without any of the deductions, divided by 12)
- 30 percent of your family’s monthly adjusted income (your annual income minus any deductions divided by 12)
- $75 minimum rent
- In special cases, 40 percent of your family’s monthly adjusted income

Total Tenant Payment Example
In the example below, the family’s annual adjusted income is $8,400. Dividing $8,400 by 12 equals the family’s monthly adjusted income — $700. The family’s annual gross income is $8,880. Dividing $8,880 by 12 equals the family’s monthly gross income — $740.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total Tenant Payment Example</th>
<th>10 percent of monthly gross income</th>
<th>$740 x 10%</th>
<th>= $74</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>30 percent of monthly adjusted income</td>
<td>$700 x 30%</td>
<td>= $210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>CHA minimum rent</td>
<td></td>
<td>= $75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Total Tenant Payment — the largest of the amounts above</td>
<td>= $210</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In this example, the Participant will not pay less than $210 (the TTP) for rent and utilities.
At your voucher briefing, the Briefer will tell you what your TTP is and let you know how much of your rent CHA will pay. This allows you to look for units in your price range.

Minimum Rent
The minimum amount of rent you will pay is $75 a month. If you cannot afford the $75 a month, you can request a hardship exemption. CHA may consider a hardship exemption in the following situations:

- You lost your federal, state or local assistance
- You are waiting for a decision about receiving federal, state or local assistance
- You would be evicted because you cannot pay the minimum rent
- You have lost some of your income because of the loss of a job or a death in the family

To request a hardship exemption from the minimum rent, you need to complete a “Minimum Rent Requirement Hardship Exemption Request” form (available online at www.thecha.org/forms) and submit it to CHA along with any required documents. If CHA approves your request, the minimum rent will be suspended starting the month after your request was received.

If your hardship is only temporary, CHA will suspend your rent for 90 days from the date of your request. At the end of the 90 days, you must repay the minimum rent for that time through a repayment agreement.

If your hardship is long-term (longer than 90 days), you will not need to pay the minimum rent until the hardship no longer exists. In addition, you will not need to pay CHA back for the exemption period.

Step 2 — Attend a Voucher Briefing

What is a voucher briefing?
After you submit your application and are approved by CHA, you will go to an informational meeting about the Program called a voucher briefing. At the voucher briefing, you will learn about how the Program works and get forms and other information you need to start searching for your unit.

At the briefing, CHA will also explain the Family Obligations to you. In addition, the Family Obligations are included in the Resources section of this Participant Reference Guide. When CHA accepts your Request for Tenancy Approval and you move into your unit, you must continue to abide by the Family Obligations in order to continue receiving rental assistance from the CHA HCV Program.

What is a voucher?
Your voucher is the document that allows you to begin looking for housing. You will get a voucher when you enter the HCV Program and when you move. The voucher says how many bedrooms your subsidy payment will pay for and when the voucher will expire.

The voucher also includes a number of rules called the Family Obligations that your family must follow. When you sign the voucher, you agree to follow those rules. If you do not follow the Family Obligations, CHA may remove you from the Program.

You can find the Family Obligations on pages 64-65 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide. You will need to read and agree to follow the Family Obligations when you enter the Program and when you move from one unit to another. If CHA or HUD changes or adds any obligations, you may also need to read and agree to the Family Obligations at a re-examination.

Re-examination
A meeting you will attend every other year to make sure you are getting all of the rent assistance that you need. At the meeting, CHA Housing Specialists will get updated details about your income, family composition and other information (Participants in CHA’s special programs will attend a re-examination every year).
Step 2 — Attend a Voucher Briefing

What does a voucher look like?
Below you will find an example of a voucher.

Public Reporting Burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 0.05 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information unless that collection displays a valid OMB control number. Assurances of confidentiality are not provided under this collection. The collection of information is authorized under Section 6 of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f). The information is used to authorize a family to look for an eligible unit and specifies the size of the unit. The information also sets forth the family’s obligations under the Housing Choice Voucher Program.

Privacy Act Statement. The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is authorized to collect the information required on this form by Section 6 of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f). Collection of family members’ names is mandatory. The information is used to authorize a family to look for an eligible unit and specifies the size of the unit. The information also sets forth the family’s obligations under the Housing Choice Voucher Program. HUD may disclose this information to Federal, State and local agencies when relevant to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigations and prosecutions. It will not be otherwise disclosed or released outside of HUD, except as permitted or required by law. Failure to provide any of the information may result in delay or rejection of family voucher issuance.

Please read entire document before completing form.
Fill in all blanks below. Type or print clearly.

2. Issue Date (mm/dd/yyyy)
3. Expiration Date (mm/dd/yyyy)
4. Name of Family Representative
   - Signature of Family Representative
5. Date Signed (mm/dd/yyyy)
6. Name of Public Housing Agency (PHA)
7. Name and Title of PHA Official
8. Signature of PHA Official
9. Date Signed (mm/dd/yyyy)

Name of Family Representative
The name of the head of household who is receiving the voucher.

Expiration Date
The date that the voucher expires (90 days from the day it is received).

Date Signed
The date that the head of household receives the voucher. This date should be the same as the issue date.

Signature of PHA Official
Must be signed by CHA to be valid.
Step 3 — Use Your Voucher

How do I find housing?
At the voucher briefing, you will learn how many bedrooms your family qualifies for and how much rental assistance you will receive from CHA. With this information (the maximum rent you can pay and the number of bedrooms you need) you can begin looking for units that match your needs. You can find information about available housing in a number of places:

- Newspapers
- Apartment guides
- CHA Regional Offices
- Friends, neighbors or co-workers who know of available units
- Real estate agents
- Online at www.thecha.org/units
- Or, simply go to the neighborhood you want to move into and look for “For Rent” signs

How does CHA decide how many bedrooms my family needs?
CHA assigns one bedroom for the head of household and the spouse and one additional bedroom for every two people in the family. The table below shows examples of the bedroom guidelines:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number of Bedrooms</th>
<th>Number of Family Members</th>
<th>Number of Family Members (If Unit Includes a Living Room/Sleeping Area)</th>

How do I know how much rent I can pay for a unit?
You will need to have an idea of how much of your rent will be paid by CHA and how much will be paid by you to know what units you can afford. The total cost of your housing each month will include both the monthly rent paid to the Owner (your portion and CHA’s portion) and the cost of utilities that you will need to pay each month.

The maximum amount of rent that CHA will pay on your behalf equals the Payment Standard minus your Total Tenant Payment. CHA determines the Payment Standard based on the number of bedrooms in a unit (see the table of Payment Standards on the next page).

For example, if you need a two-bedroom unit for your family, CHA will use the amount $1,102 to determine the maximum amount of assistance you will receive. See the box below for an example.

Helping a Family Determine Affordable Rent

In the example below, the family needs a two-bedroom unit and their Total Tenant Payment is $210 (30 percent of their monthly adjusted income). In special cases, the family may pay up to 40 percent of their monthly adjusted income (in the example below, 40 percent of the family’s monthly adjusted income is $280). The Payment Standard for a two-bedroom unit is $1,102.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Minimum Family TTP</th>
<th>=</th>
<th>$210</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Maximum Rent Assistance provided by CHA (Payment Standard minus Total Tenant Payment)</td>
<td>$1,102 - $210</td>
<td>=</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Affordable Rent for the family (including utilities)</td>
<td>=</td>
<td>$1,102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maximum Affordable Rent for the family (in special cases, Total Tenant Payment can be 40 percent of monthly adjusted income, that plus CHA’s Maximum Rent assistance equals the maximum affordable rent)</td>
<td>$892 + $280</td>
<td>=</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In this example, the family should look for a unit with rent plus utilities (or rent that includes utilities) at $1,102 to $1,172.

Keep in mind, CHA cannot calculate the exact amount of the rent (your portion of the rent and utilities added to CHA’s portion) until you choose a unit.

How long do I have to find housing with my voucher?

Once you receive your voucher at the voucher briefing, you’ll want to begin looking for housing right away. You have 90 days after you receive it to look for housing. If you do not find housing during the 90 days that your voucher is active, you will lose the voucher. You will need to re-apply for a new voucher when the waiting list re-opens.

Please note that if you have requested to move and have not moved out of your current unit but have not found new housing within the 90 days, you will probably be able to remain in your current unit. However, if you have moved out of the unit CHA last subsidized for you, you will lose your voucher. In addition, if you are required to move and don’t find new housing within 90 days, you will lose your voucher. For more information about moving, please see pages 53-55.
CHA may give you a 60-day extension in some cases, including:

- If you are a person with a disability
- If there is a serious illness or death in your family
- If your job prevents you from finding a home in a timely manner

You will need to ask for an extension in writing and include the reason for the extension request and any evidence to prove your need.

How do I choose a neighborhood that is right for me?

You are the best person to decide what neighborhood is best for you. Each Chicago neighborhood will offer something different to a family. You should decide what things are important to you. Some neighborhoods have lower crime rates than others, some are closer to stores and parks and some give you access to better schools and jobs.

To get to know a neighborhood, walk around it. You will want to think about some of the questions in the table below when choosing a neighborhood:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Questions to Ask</th>
<th>Where to Look for Answers</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>How good are the schools?</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>How close is public transportation?</td>
<td>www.transitchicago.com</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Other questions that might also be important to you when choosing a neighborhood:

- How close is it to your job?
- Is it easy to park in the neighborhood?
- Are there playgrounds nearby?
- Are there churches you can join in the area?
- How close are medical services?

What are Opportunity and Low-Poverty Areas?

CHA encourages Voucher Holders to move into Opportunity and Low-Poverty Areas because they generally offer a good quality of life. However, Owners may charge higher rents than in other neighborhoods. For that reason, HUD allows CHA to increase the Payment Standard in these areas to pay more rent.
Map of Opportunity and Low-Poverty Areas

  - Less than 30% African American

CHICAGO HOUSING AUTHORITY
How should I present myself to the Owner?
When you go looking for a new house or apartment, you should treat it like a job interview. At your first meeting, Owners will decide if you will be a good neighbor and tenant, just like a company would decide if you would be a good employee.

The list below gives examples of what Owners look for in a tenant:

- Good rental history
- Stable income (for example Social Security benefits or a retirement pension)
- Good credit history
- Good references from employers or clergy
- Good telephone etiquette (for example, if you need to leave a message, be sure to speak clearly and professionally and leave your name, phone number and the reason why you called)

What questions should I ask the Owner?
Before you go to view a unit, you will contact the Owner over the phone. You will want to make a good first impression so that the Owner thinks of you as someone that will be a good tenant and neighbor.

You may want to ask the following questions about the apartment or house you want to rent:

- Are there any vacancies?
- How much is the rent?
- Do you allow pets? Are there any pet fees?
- Are there any application, association, condominium or other rental fees?
- How much is the security deposit?
- What utilities will I pay?
- Who is responsible for pest control?
- How do I request repairs?
- Does the unit have central air conditioning?
- Does the unit include a stove or refrigerator or do I need get my own?

What should I do when I go to view the unit?
First, you will want to dress appropriately and be courteous so you make a good impression. Every time an Owner talks with you, they will think about whether you will be a good tenant and neighbor.
When you go to the unit, you will need to bring some information with you and fill out an application. Below are some things you will want to bring:

- Personal identification
- Names and phone numbers of your references
- Employment information
- Contact information for the Owner or Property Manager of your past and current apartments or homes
- Your voucher
- Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) packet

Everyone that rents a unit must fill out an application. Many Owners will ask you for an application fee to process your application and perform a credit check.

What happens once the Owner approves my application?

When the Owner of the unit approves your application, you, along with the Owner, will need to complete and submit the forms included in your RTA packet to CHA. You can find an example of these forms on pages 134-143 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide. CHA will then begin the process to approve your unit and allow you to move in to your new home.

The list below describes CHA’s approval process:

1. The RTA packet is signed by you and the Owner and submitted to CHA.
2. CHA will work with the Owner to schedule and complete an initial Housing Quality Standards (HQS) Inspection of the unit.
3. If the Owner needs to make repairs to the unit to meet HQS, CHA will schedule and complete a re-inspection.
4. CHA will decide whether the rent is reasonable, how much of the rent you will pay and how much CHA will pay the Owner directly. CHA will also decide if you will receive a Utility Reimbursement Payment to help pay for your utilities.
5. After the unit passes inspection and CHA decides on rent payments, you will sign a lease with the Owner and, if you have not already, give them a security deposit and receive the keys to the unit. At this time, CHA also signs a contract with the Owner for the Housing Assistance Payment.
6. Once you have signed the lease and received keys to the unit, the unit is yours. Once you have accepted the keys, you are responsible for adhering to the Family Obligations and all terms of the lease and Tenancy Addendum.
Step 4 — Await Inspection Results

What are Housing Quality Standards (HQS) inspections?
CHA inspects units that Voucher Holders want to rent to make sure the units will not endanger the health and safety of the household. During an HQS inspection, the inspector visits a unit to see that it has electricity, ventilation and enough living space for the family.

Here are some of the HQS requirements:

- Area for food preparation and storage
- Adequate space and security
- Heat
- Lighting and electricity
- Quality structure and materials
- Acceptable interior air quality
- Acceptable water supply
- Lead-based paint is not present
- Acceptable site and neighborhood
- Smoke and carbon monoxide detectors
- See pages 48-49 for more about HQS

CHA will schedule an initial inspection within three days of receiving your completed Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) forms. CHA works directly with the Owner to handle inspections or re-inspections.

Inspections and Lead-Based Paint
The primary cause of childhood lead poisoning is the ingestion of deteriorated lead-based paint. Since the U.S. banned lead-based paint in 1978, this hazard is restricted to older homes. However, most of Chicago’s housing fits this category of older housing. Children under the age of six are particularly susceptible to the potential neurological problems caused by lead poisoning because their nervous system is still developing. In addition, they tend to crawl and play on the floor where paint chips and dust collect and have a habit of putting things in their mouths. Lead poisoning can cause severe learning disabilities, hearing loss, brain and nerve damage and even death.
Step 4 — Await Inspection Results

To help protect these children, if a building meets all of the following conditions, CHA will perform a visual paint assessment during the HQS inspection process:

- Built before 1978
- Has not been gutted and rehabilitated since 1978
- Is (or will be) occupied by a child under the age of six for at least three days a week

Any paint deterioration (cracking, chipping, chalking or peeling) requires action, but substantial paint deterioration may require a lead clearance exam performed by a certified laboratory. In order to provide lead-safe environments for their tenants, Owners should address any significant peeling paint issues as soon as discovered or regularly re-paint to seal surfaces and trap any lead-based paint that may be present.

CHA provides a Lead Education Initiative Packet including two informational brochures about lead poisoning that detail its effects and prevention (see pages 85-109 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide). CHA distributes this packet to all Participants at voucher briefings and re-examination interviews and makes it available in the Resource Centers of each office as well as on CHA’s website at www.thecha.org/forms. In addition, Participants must sign a Release Form and Checklist to confirm receipt and understanding of these materials.

Do I need to attend the initial inspection?

You will not need to attend the initial inspection, but CHA recommends that you keep in touch with the Owner during the process. CHA will notify you when the unit passes or fails an inspection.
Step 5 — Await Rent Decision

How does CHA decide if the rent for a unit is reasonable?
CHA will compare the rent that the Owner asks for to the market rent for similar unassisted units to make sure that the Owner’s requested rent is not too high. To do this, CHA considers a number of things like location, amenities, affordability, condition, utilities and Fair Market Rent, a number provided by HUD.

Fair Market Rent
Each year, HUD announces the Fair Market Rent for units with different numbers of bedrooms. HUD bases this number on a survey that collects information about rental rates for various unassisted units. For example, HUD may say that the Fair Market Rent for a one-bedroom unit is $853 based on what Owners typically charge for one-bedroom units. CHA uses this number to calculate the amount of assistance the HCV Program will provide.

How does CHA decide how much they will pay the Owner?
CHA can only decide how much assistance to provide once you have selected a unit and turned in your completed Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) forms.

Housing Assistance Payment (HAP)
The money CHA pays to Owners to cover the rent not paid by the Participant

Total Tenant Payment (TTP)
The greater of:

- 10 percent of your monthly income
- 30 percent of your adjusted monthly income (40 percent in special cases)
- $75 minimum rent

Gross Rent and Payment Standard
CHA uses the smaller of two numbers to calculate the HAP — the gross rent for the unit or the Payment Standard for your family. The gross rent is the Owner’s requested rent for the unit plus your Utility Allowance for the utilities you need to pay. CHA determines the Payment Standard based on the number of bedrooms in a unit (see the table of Payment Standards on page 29).
The list below describes the process CHA follows to calculate a HAP:

1. Looks at the rent amount asked for by the Owner
2. Assigns you a Utility Allowance based on the utilities you are responsible for and the number of bedrooms in your unit
3. Adds the Owner’s requested rent and your Utility Allowance — this is called gross rent
4. Compares the gross rent and Payment Standard and selects the lower of the two
5. Subtracts your Total Tenant Payment from the lower amount to get the HAP

Calculating the HAP
In the example below, the family wants to rent a two-bedroom unit. The lease states that the family will pay for heating gas, cooking gas and electricity. Their Utility Allowance will be $114 ($64 for heating gas plus $5 for cooking gas plus $45 for electricity).

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Owner Requested Rent</th>
<th>= $950</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Total Tenant Payment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Utility Allowance plus tenant rent payment to Owner</td>
<td>= $215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Utility Allowance</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Amount family will pay the Owner or utility company for utilities</td>
<td>= $114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gross Rent</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Owner Requested Rent plus Utility Allowance</td>
<td>$950 + $114 = $1,064</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Payment Standard for a two-bedroom unit</td>
<td>= $1,102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CHA selects Gross Rent because Gross Rent ($1,064) is less than the Payment Standard ($1,102)</td>
<td>= $1,064</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Housing Assistance Payment (HAP)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gross Rent minus Total Tenant Payment</td>
<td>$1,064 - $215 = $849</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tenant rent payment to Owner</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Tenant Payment minus the Utility Allowance</td>
<td>$215 - $114 = $101</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

In this example, CHA will pay the Owner $849 on behalf of the family each month. The family will pay a total of $215 each month ($101 in rent to the Owner each month and $114 for utilities). Depending on the lease, the family will pay the Owner or the utility companies $114 a month for utilities.

If the Gross Rent (rent to the Owner plus utilities) is more than the Payment Standard for your unit, you will need to pay the additional amount. As an HCV Program Participant, however, you cannot pay more than 40 percent of your monthly adjusted income any one month.

How much of the rent will I pay?
You will pay the portion of the rent not paid by CHA. Depending on your lease, you may also need to pay some of the utilities.

The maximum amount of rent that CHA will provide for you is the Payment Standard for the size of your voucher subsidy amount minus your Total Tenant Payment. The amount of rent that you will pay to the Owner or Property Manager each month equals your Total Tenant Payment minus the cost of utilities for which you are responsible. You will then pay utilities to the appropriate party (Owner, Property Manager or utility company).

In special cases, you may be allowed to pay up to 40 percent of your monthly adjusted income if the gross rent (Owner rent plus utilities) of your unit is greater than CHA’s Payment Standard for your family.

For sample rent calculations, see page 25 of this Reference Guide.
Step 6 — Sign the Lease

What is the lease?
The lease is a contract between you and the Owner. The lease will state rules you must follow while living in the unit, the monthly rent for the unit, the utilities that you must pay and other items. Make sure that the lease also includes the Tenancy Addendum (see pages 117-120). For an example of a lease, see pages 121-125 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide.

When do I sign the lease?
Do not sign your lease or move in to your new home until it passes a Housing Quality Standards inspection and CHA approves the rent. CHA will notify you and the Owner when the unit has passed inspection and the rent has been approved. Once this has happened, you can arrange with the Owner to sign your lease. At that time, you will work with the Owner or Property Manager to schedule a move-in date and arrange for when you will get your keys. You may also pay your security deposit at that time.

What is a security deposit?
An Owner collects a security deposit to pay for rent you did not pay or any damage to the unit that is not from normal use when you move out. You will give the Owner a security deposit when you sign your lease. The security deposit cannot be more than what’s asked for in the private market and must be in accordance with the Chicago Landlord and Tenant Ordinance.

If you have done excessive damage to the unit or have unpaid rent when you move out, the Owner will deduct the total amount from your security deposit. If you keep the unit clean and do not cause any excessive damage to the unit, you should receive your full security deposit when you move out.

Below you will find the city of Chicago’s regulations about security deposits:

- An Owner or Property Manager must provide to the tenant a receipt for the security deposit that includes the Owner’s name, the date it was received and a description of the dwelling unit. The receipt must be signed by the person accepting the security deposit.
- An Owner must pay interest each year on security deposits and pre-paid rent (effective January 1, 1992) held more than six months.
• The rate of interest an Owner must pay is set each year by the City Comptroller (effective July 1, 1997).

• Before expenses for damages can be deducted from the security deposit, the Owner or Property Manager must provide the tenant with an itemized statement of the damages within 30 days of the date the tenant vacates the dwelling unit.

• An Owner or Property Manager must return all of the security deposit and required interest, if any, minus unpaid rent and expenses for damages, within 45 days from the date the tenant vacates the unit.

• In the event of a fire, an Owner or Property Manager must return all of the security deposit and required interest, if any, minus unpaid rent and expenses for damages, within seven days from the date that the tenant provides notice of termination of the rental agreement (effective July 1, 1992).

How much can the Owner charge me to repair damages?
The Owner of your unit cannot charge you for slight damage from normal use. For example, the Owner cannot charge you for small scuffs or scratches on the hallway wall. However, he/she can charge you for a hole in the wall.

How do I make sure I don’t pay for damages that are not mine?
To protect your security deposit, CHA recommends that you take careful notes about the condition of the unit when you move in. Use the Move In/Move Out form on pages 112-114 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide. You should also take pictures of any damages if you can. This will make sure the Owner does not charge you for damages caused by people that lived in the unit before you.

If you have trouble getting your deposit back, please contact the Legal Assistance Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago at 312-341-1070.
Step 7 — Move in, Pay Rent and Utilities

Congratulations! Once you’ve reached this step, you are an official HCV Program Participant! When you move in, remember to take detailed notes about the condition of your unit using the Move In/Move Out form on pages 112-114 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide. CHA also recommends that you take pictures of any damage to the unit to protect yourself when you move.

What kinds of things should I do when I move in to the neighborhood?
CHA recommends the following:

• Find the nearest medical facilities, libraries and parks
• Talk with your children about the change
• Enroll your children in school and after-school programs
• Find out when garbage is collected
• Consider purchasing renter’s insurance to protect your home and belongings
• Meet your new neighbors
• Find out about the leaders in your community and meet them
• Register to vote at your nearest library
• Participate in neighborhood and PTA meetings
• Join community organizations and Neighborhood Watch programs
• Learn about city code violations

As a Participant, what are my responsibilities to CHA and the Owner?
The list below states a number of requirements you must meet as a Participant in the HCV Program:

• You must obey the requirements of the lease and Tenancy Addendum you signed with the Owner
• You must obey the requirements in the Family Obligations on pages 64-65 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide
• Before you move out of the unit, you must give CHA 30 days notice and the Owner or Property Manager at least 30 days notice or the amount of notice stated in your lease
• You must keep your unit in the same condition as when you moved in (any damage beyond normal wear and tear can affect your security deposit and may be a violation of your Family Obligations)
• You must make the unit available for inspections
• You must attend re-examinations at least every two years; at a re-examination, CHA will take another look at your income, expenses and number of family members to make sure you’re receiving all the assistance you deserve (CHA may also recalculate your portion of the rent)
• You must make timely payments to the Owner or Property Manager and utility companies
Step 8 — Be a Positive Part of the HCV Program

How do I make sure I do my part in the HCV Program?
Communities consist of different types of families. A family might include married couples, single adults, the elderly or persons with disabilities. Your neighbors might own their home or rent it.

When you decide to move to a new neighborhood, you decide to accept and adjust to the values of your new community. The people living in a neighborhood depend on each other to create and maintain a positive environment for everyone that lives there.

Your neighbors will take notice of your level of self-respect and their impression of you will affect how they accept you and treat you in the community.

The best thing you can do is act and treat others in your neighborhood as you’d like them to act and treat you.

Build relationships with and talk to your neighbors
Your ability to communicate and get along with your neighbors and the Owner or Property Manager of your unit has a large effect on whether you and your family will feel comfortable in your neighborhood.

Remember, you will live in a neighborhood with people from many different backgrounds. Those differences can include age, gender, religion and ethnicity. Respecting the differences in your neighbors can be the first step in building a relationship with them.

To build friendship, trust and respect with and for your neighbors, make sure you do the following:

• Identify things you have in common
• Understand your differences
• Create a comfort zone (don’t share too much right away)
• Eliminate rumors

Make a good first impression when you meet your neighbors
Follow these tips to make a good first impression:

• Make eye contact, shake hands and smile
• Introduce yourself by saying, “Hello, my name is [name]. How are you doing?”
• Find out their name
• Listen closely
• Compliment them and thank them for any compliments
Be a good neighbor

A good neighbor is a law-abiding citizen with a good attitude who values and respects other people and is active in the community.

To be a good neighbor, you should do the following things:

- Get to know your neighbors
- Don’t bring bad habits to your new neighborhood
- Respect yourself and your property
- Respect the lives, opinions and property of others
- Be accountable for your actions
- Make sure people can trust and depend on you
- Have a positive attitude
- Abide by the law
- Get involved and take action to strengthen your community
- Vote

Keep your unit clean—inside and out

Here are some basic housekeeping tips:

- Make cleaning a family activity
- Keep your home organized
- Choose a place where you can store items
- Avoid clutter (get rid of things you don’t use)
- Straighten up your unit daily
- Choose a place for your laundry
- Clean more thoroughly on your days off from work
- Use curtains, not sheets, to cover windows
- Wash dishes and clean up after every meal
- Keep the outside of your unit clean
  - Cut the grass in the summer (if it’s your responsibility)
  - Remove snow in the winter (if it’s your responsibility)
  - Pick up trash around your unit

Did you know?

If we hear from your neighbors...

you will hear from us.

Be a Good Neighbor!
What types of behavior would be unacceptable in my new neighborhood?
The following behaviors would show your neighbors that you don’t respect them:

- Loitering
- Participating in criminal, drug or gang activity
- Leaving your children unsupervised
- Having unauthorized people living in the unit
- Playing music too loudly in your car or your home
- Throwing loud parties
- Your guests parking their cars in front of your neighbor’s driveway
- Letting your dog go to the bathroom on your neighbors’ yards
- Letting your trash bin overflow and spill into your yard
- Littering in your yard
- Letting your grass grow too long
- Disturbing the peace
- Getting rid of old furniture by dumping it on the curb
- Parking inoperable vehicles in your yard or on the street
- Allowing guests or people living in your unit to disturb your neighbors
- Not keeping the inside and outside of your home clean
- Having unauthorized pets

What’s a good way to solve problems I might have with my neighbors?
Taking the following actions will make sure you and your neighbors solve conflicts peacefully:

- Remember that to get respect from others, you must respect them
- Speak calmly with your neighbor
- Listen to your neighbor and try to understand their point-of-view
- Make sure you and your neighbor leave the discussion on friendly terms
- Be willing to negotiate
- If you and your neighbor live in the same building and cannot solve a problem, contact the Property Owner/Manager
- If the issue is with a neighbor that does not live in your building and you cannot solve a problem, work with your block club, CAPS program or alderman’s office
  - Call 311 or visit www.chicagopolice.org for information about block clubs or CAPS
  - Visit www.thecha.org/alderman to find your alderman

Family Obligation:
You must attend informational briefings/required appointments including but not limited to those scheduled to discuss violations of your Family Obligations and allegations of criminal activity in your unit, building or neighborhood.
Inspections

When will my unit need to be inspected?
Your unit must continue to meet the Housing Quality Standards while you live there to keep your home safe, healthy and comfortable. Inspectors sent by CHA will visit your unit to make sure it is decent, safe and sanitary.

An inspector might need to visit your unit to perform the following inspection types:

- Annual Inspection
- 24-Hour Emergency Inspection
- Quality Control Inspection

Annual Inspections
HUD rules require that CHA inspect all assisted units each year. Every 365 days, CHA will need to conduct another inspection of your unit. Sixty days before the anniversary date of your last inspection, CHA will mail you and the Owner a letter with an inspection date.

If a unit fails the annual inspection, the inspector will determine whether the Participant or the Owner is responsible for the failure.

If the Owner is responsible, they must make the repair and have it re-inspected within 30 days. Otherwise, CHA will stop paying (abate) the Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) to the Owner until the unit passes inspection.

If the Participant is responsible for the failure, the family must make the repair or work with the Owner or Property Manager to have (and if necessary, pay for) the repair and have it re-inspected within 30 days. Otherwise, CHA will send the family an Intent to Terminate (ITT) Notice. The ITT Notice informs the Participant that CHA is considering removing the family from the HCV Program.

Some examples of failures that may be the Participant’s responsibility include the following:

- Failure to pay for Participant-supplied utilities
- Failure to provide and maintain Participant-supplied appliances
- Damage caused by the Participant or their guests
- Cancellation of two consecutive inspections
- Does not allow the inspector to complete an inspection
- Not showing up for an inspection

If the failure is an emergency, the Owner or Participant must make the repair and have the unit re-inspected within 24 hours.

24-Hour Emergency Inspections
If an inspector discovers a serious failure that threatens the health or safety of the Participant, the failure items must be corrected within 24 hours.
If the Owner is responsible for the failure and does not fix the issue within 24 hours, CHA will stop (abate) the HAP to the Owner. If the Participant is responsible and does not repair the problem within 24 hours, CHA will begin termination proceedings.

Below are some examples of 24-hour emergency failure items:

- The unit is uninhabitable due to fire, flood or other natural disasters
- Security issues such as missing or broken locks on exterior doors
- Major plumbing leaks that may cause the ceiling or floor to cave-in
- Gas or fuel leaks
- Electricity problems that might result in shock or fire
- Utilities that are not in service
- Blocked entrances or exits
- No functioning toilet
- Sewer backed-up in unit
- Missing smoke detectors
- Heating system that is not working or cannot maintain 68 degrees between September 15 and June 1

Inspection Results
CHA makes inspection results available on the Internet as quickly as one business day after the inspection is performed. Simply visit www.thecha.org/results to get inspection results such as pass or fail status as well as specific failure information.

Re-examinations

What are re-examinations?
Participants must have their income and family composition re-examined every two years by a CHA housing specialist — this is called a re-examination.

At the re-examination, your CHA housing specialist will make sure you are receiving all of the assistance you deserve.

When the time comes for your re-examination, CHA will send you a Re-examination Appointment Notice telling you the date and time of your re-examination. You will receive this notice three or four weeks before your appointment. If you have any questions or need a reasonable accommodation, please contact the CHA Customer Call Center. For sign language services, CHA asks that you give at least seven days advanced notice.

Along with this notice, you will get an Application for Continued Eligibility and an Authorization for Release of Information. You will need to complete these forms and bring them with you to your appointment.

You must attend this appointment. If you cannot, you need to contact the CHA Customer Call Center immediately to reschedule. In addition, all family members 18 years of age and older must attend the re-examination. Failure to attend your appointment is a violation of your Family Obligations and could result in your termination from the HCV Program.

What will happen at my re-examination?
CHA will verify the following information:

- Your income
- Social Security numbers for all household members
- The income of all of your household members
- Childcare expenses for children 12 and under
- Medical expenses for the head of household and their spouse if they are disabled and/or over the age of 62
- Request for Reasonable Accommodation, if applicable

You will need to bring proof of these items with you to the re-examination. For a checklist of documents you should bring, see the Verification Documents Checklist on page 130 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide. Any documents used for verification must be the original (not photocopies) and generally must be dated within 120 calendar days of the date you submit them to CHA. The documents must not be damaged, altered or in any way illegible.

At your appointment, a CHA housing specialist will review your documents with you and have you sign a number of forms. The specialist will also double-check the income information you give them using HUD’s national online computer system.
As a part of the re-examination process, CHA will perform a criminal background check on every household member 18 years of age and older including live-in aides. In addition, CHA will obtain police reports on household members 17 years of age or older who have been reported to have engaged in criminal activity within the last five years.

HUD requires CHA to collect valid Social Security numbers for all household members. If you do not provide this information at your application interview, you will have 10 days to submit the information. If you do not submit it within that time, CHA may begin termination proceedings.

Individuals that do not need to provide a Social Security number to CHA include:

- Individuals that do not claim to have eligible immigration status
- Individuals age 62 or older as of Jan. 31, 2011
- Individuals from whom CHA has a valid Social Security number on file

When a Participant wants to add a new member to their household, such as a new baby, they must provide that person’s valid Social Security number to CHA at their next interim or regular re-examination. In addition, if a family member is assigned a new Social Security number for any reason, the Participant must give that number to CHA at the next interim or biennial re-examination.

If a Participant does not provide valid Social Security numbers for all family members, CHA will only grant one 90-day extension and only in certain situations. If the family still fails to provide valid Social Security numbers, CHA will remove them from the Program (this is called a termination). CHA will delay the termination for 90 days if the family failed to provide Social Security numbers because of an event they couldn’t control.

After a housing specialist evaluates the information you provide, they will recalculate your Total Tenant Payment and the amount of assistance CHA will give you. You will receive 30 days notice of these recalculations.

What is an interim re-examination?
An interim re-examination is a re-examination that occurs at a time other than your regularly scheduled re-examination.

CHA will conduct an interim re-examination if there is a change in the size of your household (approved additions or removals — see below for who can be added) or if you report an increase in income and your household previously had no (zero) income. Those families with zero income are required to report all increases in income, including new employment, within 30 calendar days. If you report a decrease in income, an interim re-examination may also be necessary.

CHA limits the addition of new members to your household to include only:

- Birth, adoption or court-awarded custody/legal guardianship of a child
- Marriage, civil union or domestic partnership
- Reasonable accommodation
- Elderly parent(s)

Civil Union:
A legal union sanctioned by a civil authority.

Domestic Partnership:
A legal or personal relationship between two individuals, 18 years or older, who live together in a primary residence and share a common domestic life but are neither joined by marriage nor a civil union.
Moving

What do I do if I want to move?
You can move and continue receiving rent assistance if you have lived in your unit for 12 months, given CHA and the Owner or Property Manager at least 30 days notice and are in good standing with the HCV Program. CHA will only give you permission to move if you are not violating the lease or any of the Program rules. In addition, you will be required to complete the re-examination process before moving if your next regularly scheduled re-examination is within 120 days.

In some cases, CHA may allow you to move before you’ve lived in your unit for 12 months or completed the re-examination process. Those exceptions include the following:

- To protect the health or safety of your family from domestic or sexual violence or as part of a witness protection program
- Building/unit foreclosure
- Emergencies (fire, flood, etc.)
- Reasonable accommodations for a person with a disability
- Relocatees

If you want to move, you will first need to call the CHA Customer Call Center at 312-935-2600 and request moving papers. Note: You will want to look for housing and find another unit before you call for moving papers. You will also want to make sure the new unit you select is likely to pass an inspection the first time.

The following steps must be completed within 30 days of your request:

1. Eligibility verification by CHA to include a criminal background check for any household member 18 years of age or older
2. Attend a voucher briefing
3. Submit to CHA a completed Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) packet (see pages 134-143 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide)
4. Provide the Owner and CHA a Notice to Vacate (see page 131 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide)
5. If CHA approves your request to move, you and the Owner will receive an Acknowledgement to Vacate Notice that includes your move-out date and other important information (see page 132 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide for a sample of this form).
6. Wait for your new unit to pass inspection and for CHA to decide on rent with the new Owner
7. Sign your lease
8. Complete a move-out inspection of the unit you are vacating with the unit’s Owner or Property Manager
9. Move in to the new unit
What if I want to move outside of the Chicago area?
As a Participant in the HCV Program, your rent assistance can move along with you. You can transfer your voucher to other counties or states. This is called porting.

To port to another Housing Authority other than CHA, you will need to inform CHA by contacting the CHA Customer Call Center. You will also need to meet the other Housing Authority’s requirements. To find contact information for other housing authorities in Illinois, see Other Housing Authorities on pages 145-146 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide.

How do I port to another Housing Authority?
The list below gives you facts about the porting process:

- If you have a legal residence in Chicago while on the HCV Program waiting list, you can port to another Housing Authority without first using your voucher in Chicago
- If you have received a voucher and signed a lease in Chicago, you must live there for one year before you can port
- The Housing Authority you want to port to may have different rules, policies and deadlines than CHA
- Your portion of the rent, your Utility Allowance and the amount of your rent that the other Housing Authority pays may be different
- You may have to have another interview at the other Housing Authority and submit documentation to them
- You may have to attend another voucher briefing and may receive a different size voucher at the new Housing Authority
- CHA or the other Housing Authority can terminate you from the Program while you port if you violate any rules
- CHA recommends that you visit the new area that you want to move to before porting
- You must give your current Owner or Property Manager at least 30 days notice that you will be moving
- You must have good standing with CHA before porting (i.e., no lease violations, no unpaid rent, no damages to your current unit or any other program violations)
- If another Housing Authority besides CHA accepts you or gives you one of their vouchers, you no longer have a voucher with CHA

What happens to my security deposit when I move?
First, unless you get permission from the Owner to do so, you cannot use your security deposit to pay your last month’s rent. If you do receive permission, make sure that you get it in writing. Otherwise, the Owner might sue you.
When you get ready to move out, the Owner or Property Manager will look at your unit with you to see if it is in the same condition as when you moved in. If it is, the Owner must return your security deposit to you within 45 days of your move-out date.

You will want to keep your Move In/Move Out form and any pictures you took when you moved into the unit to make sure the Owner does not charge you for damages you did not cause. If you or your guests damaged the unit in any way beyond normal use, the Owner will deduct repair costs from your security deposit.

If the Owner is going to charge you for any repairs, they must give you a written list of the damages you caused within 30 days of when you moved out. If they do not, they cannot deduct any costs from your security deposit. If they deduct repair costs, they must include receipts for the repairs.

If you still owe rent, the Owner can deduct the amount from your security deposit without notifying you.

What if my building or unit is in foreclosure?

Laws protect you from sudden eviction if a lender forecloses the building or unit in which you live. You will receive 90 days notice to vacate.

If the lender does not intend to live in the unit after the foreclosure, you can stay in the unit until your lease ends. If the lender does plan to live in the unit, they can cancel your lease after 90 days notice.

If you receive a notice from the lender to vacate because of a foreclosure, contact the CHA Customer Call Center.

Refer to page 144 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide for more information.
Terminations

What is a termination?
A termination is CHA removing a Participant from the HCV Program. HUD requires CHA to terminate a Participant if the Participant violates the Family Obligations or lease and when a Participant is no longer eligible for assistance.

If terminated, you will no longer receive rental assistance from CHA. Before CHA terminates a Participant, the Participant will receive an Intent to Terminate Notice which states why they might be terminated and when. See page 147 in the Resources section of this Reference Guide for an example of an Intent to Terminate Notice.

Why might I be terminated?
If any of the following situations applies to you and your family, CHA may terminate your assistance:

- A household member violates the Family Obligations or the terms of the lease
- A household member is convicted of child molestation or arson
- A household member is a sex offender
- A household member commits fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program
- A household member possesses or uses a firearm or aggravated assault weapon in violation of federal, state or local criminal or civil laws
- A household member disturbs others’ quiet and peaceful enjoyment of the premises or neighborhood
- Participant fails to fulfill their repayment agreement with CHA or any other Housing Authority
- A household member behaves violently toward a CHA staff member or its agents or threatens to do so
- Participant fails to turn in required documentation (such as Social Security numbers)
- Participant fails to provide proof of citizenship
- A household member abuses drugs or alcohol or engages in other criminal activity
- A household member has a conviction of manufacturing or producing methamphetamine
- Your income increases so that you no longer need assistance (after six months of no rent assistance, CHA may terminate you)
In making a decision about the termination of your assistance based on any of the above violations, CHA will consider all credible evidence including but not limited to:

- Any record of arrests and/or convictions of household members related to drug-related or violent criminal activity
- Any eye-witness accounts
- Any agent and/or employee of CHA’s investigation indicating current drug-related or violent criminal activity, regardless of whether the family member has been arrested or convicted
- Any eviction or notice to evict based on drug-related or violent criminal activity, including illegal possession or use of a firearm or an aggravated assault weapon in violation of federal, state or local criminal or civil laws
- A pattern or practice where the family has been warned by letter, Prohibitive Activity or Conduct Agreement and/or meeting with CHA staff regarding the same issue more than once

Criminal Activity

When you or your guests engage in criminal behavior, you not only break the law, you also violate your lease and the Family Obligations. Remember, if you engage in criminal behavior, you risk losing your CHA assistance.

If any member of your household, your guests or any person under your control commits a crime, the Owner might evict you and CHA might terminate you. It does not matter if there is an arrest or a conviction related to the crime. All that matters is if the criminal activity occurred.

The following criminal activities committed by you, a household member or your guests may be grounds for your termination:

- Any activity that threatens the right of other residents or neighbors to enjoy the premises peacefully (this includes activities that threaten the health and safety of others)
- Violence on or near the premises
- The use or sale of drugs or any other drug-related activity
- Violating the rules of probation or parole
- Fleeing to avoid prosecution, custody or confinement or housing a person that is fleeing
- Alcohol abuse that threatens the health, safety or peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents
Informal Hearings

What are my rights if I disagree with a CHA decision?
CHA allows Participants to appeal some decisions. To appeal a decision, you will need to request an Informal Hearing. You have 30 days from when you receive written notice of a decision to schedule an Informal Hearing.

A hearing officer that was not involved in the decision will oversee your Informal Hearing. You will receive notice about whether the decision was reversed within 30 days of your hearing.

You can request a hearing for the following reasons:

- Denial or termination of your assistance
- Changes in your Total Tenant Payment, portion of the rent, Payment Standard or Utility Allowance
- Unit size (number of bedrooms) calculation
- Delay, denial or termination of your assistance because of ineligible immigration status

If you request an Informal Hearing based on CHA’s decisions about your rent calculation or unit size, you will first receive written explanation of the calculation. If you still disagree with the decision, CHA will grant you an Informal Hearing.

You cannot request a hearing for the following reasons:

- A decision that a unit does not meet Housing Quality Standards
- An extension for your housing search
- A complaint about how CHA develops Utility Allowances (in general—however, you can request a hearing if your Utility Allowance has been changed from one entry to another on the schedule)
- A complaint about general HCV Program policies
- CHA’s decision to use or not use any right or remedy against the Owner provided in CHA’s contract with the Owner

You may bring a lawyer or other representative to your hearing, at your own expense, and bring witnesses and evidence to support your case.

The steps in the Informal Hearing process are as follows:

1. You receive written notice of a CHA decision regarding your participation
2. Within 30 days, you submit a request for an Informal Hearing
3. You gather evidence, hire a lawyer (if you choose) and get witnesses to support your case
4. At the hearing, the hearing officer listens to both parties in the case (CHA and the Participant)
5. The hearing officer will make a decision about the case within 30 days
6. CHA and the Participant will receive notice of the decision and the resulting next steps
Special Programs

What special programs does CHA offer?
Not only does CHA help you afford quality housing for you and your family, CHA offers programs and services to help you achieve personal goals, such as working toward homeownership (Choose to Own Homeownership Program), accomplishing career goals and saving money (Family Self-Sufficiency Program) and relocating to top-rated communities within the city of Chicago (Mobility Counseling Program).

For more information about any of these special programs, visit CHA’s website at www.thecha.org or call the CHA Customer Call Center at 312-935-2600.

What is the Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program?
CHA’s Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program assists both HCV Program Participants and public housing residents in obtaining or advancing employment opportunities and building financial assets for the future. FSS is a HUD program that allows participants to build financial assets as their household income increases from employment. Participation generally lasts five years during which participants identify educational, professional and personal goals.

Hundreds of CHA families have graduated from the FSS Program and found rewarding careers in hospitality or customer service, real estate, education and medical fields. FSS graduates have used the money saved during the program to make down payments on homes, purchase cars, pay off debt, start businesses, and more.

CHA’s FSS Program for HCV Program Participants is currently at capacity, so CHA is not currently enrolling or accepting new applications at this time. Once slots are available, CHA will make application information available through the CHA website, at HCV Program Regional Offices and through the CHA Customer Call Center.

What is the Choose to Own (CTO) Homeownership Program?
CHA’s Choose to Own (CTO) Homeownership Program gives Participants the option to own a home within the city of Chicago. The CTO Homeownership Program combines knowledgeable staff and strong community partnerships to give you a comprehensive support network that guides you along your path to homeownership. To qualify for the CTO Homeownership Program, you must be a head of household and earn at least $14,500* annually.

The CTO Homeownership Program provides the following services to support you through the home-buying process:

- Pre- and post-purchase counseling to help you navigate the home-buying process
- Referrals to lenders
- Pro bono (free or reduced fee) lawyers to help with the closing and post-purchase legal issues
- Estate planning features

*Seniors and people with disabilities may be exempt from the minimum income requirements.
CHA uses the Housing Assistance Payment (HAP) to help those families participating in the CTO Homeownership Program pay a portion of their monthly mortgage for up to 15 years (up to 30 years for the elderly or people with disabilities). Pre- and post-purchase homeownership counseling is required in order to complete the CTO program and utilize the voucher subsidy toward your mortgage. Participants can purchase a single-family home, townhouse, condominium or cooperative anywhere in Chicago.

1. Housing Choice Voucher Program

A. The public housing agency (PHA) has determined that the above named family (item 5) is eligible to participate in the housing choice voucher program. Under this program, the family chooses a decent, safe and sanitary unit to live in. If the owner agrees to lease the unit to the family under the housing choice voucher program, and if the PHA approves the unit, the PHA will enter into a housing assistance payments (HAP) contract with the owner to make monthly payments to the owner to help the family pay the rent.

B. The PHA determines the amount of the monthly housing assistance payment to be paid to the owner. Generally, the monthly housing assistance payment by the PHA is the difference between the applicable payment standard and 30 percent of the family's adjusted income. In determining the maximum initial housing assistance payment for the family, the PHA will use the payment standard and comparative market rents for the area chosen that are in effect on the date the tenancy is approved by the PHA. The family may choose to rent a unit for more than the payment standard, but this choice does not change the amount of the PHA's assistance payment. The actual amount of the PHA's assistance payment will be determined using the gross rent for the unit selected by the family.

2. Voucher

A. When issuing this voucher the PHA expects that if the family finds an approved unit, the PHA will have the money available to enter into a HAP contract with the owner. However, the PHA is under no obligation to the family, to any owner, or to any other person, to approve a tenancy. The PHA does not have any liability to any party by the issuance of this voucher.

B. The voucher does not give the family any right to participate in the PHA's housing choice voucher program. The family becomes a participant in the PHA's housing choice voucher program when the HAP contract between the PHA and the owner takes effect.

C. During the initial or any extended term of this voucher, the PHA may require the family to report progress in leasing a unit at such intervals and times as determined by the PHA.
3. PHA Approval or Disapproval of Unit or Lease
   A. When the family finds a suitable unit where the owner is willing to participate in the program, the family must give the PHA the request for tenancy approval (on the form supplied by the PHA), signed by the owner and the family, and a copy of the lease, including the HUD-prescribed tenancy addendum. Note: Both documents must be given to the PHA no later than the expiration date stated in item 3 or 4 on top of page one of this voucher.
   B. The family must submit these documents in the manner that is required by the PHA. PHA policy may prohibit the family from submitting more than one request for tenancy approval at a time.
   The lease must include, word-for-word, all provisions of the tenancy addendum required by HUD and supplied by the PHA.
   This is done by adding the HUD tenancy addendum to the lease used by the owner. If there is a difference between any provisions of the HUD tenancy addendum and any provisions of the owner's lease, the provisions of the HUD tenancy addendum shall control.
   D. After receiving the request for tenancy approval and a copy of the lease, the PHA will inspect the unit. The PHA may not give approval for the family to lease the unit or execute the HAP contract until the PHA has determined that all the following program requirements are met: the unit is eligible;
      the unit has been inspected by the PHA and passes the housing quality standards (HQS); the rent is reasonable; and the landlord and tenant have executed the lease including the HUD-prescribed tenancy addendum.
   E. If the PHA approves the unit, the PHA will notify the family and the owner, and will furnish two copies of the HAP contract to the owner.
      1. The owner and the family must execute the lease.
      2. The owner must sign both copies of the HAP contract and must furnish to the PHA a copy of the executed lease and both copies of the executed HAP contract.
      3. The PHA will execute the HAP contract and return an executed copy to the owner.
   F. If the PHA determines that the unit or lease cannot be approved for any reason, the PHA will notify the owner and the family that:
      1. The proposed unit or lease is disapproved for specified reasons, and
      2. If the conditions requiring disapproval are remedied to the satisfaction of the PHA on or before the date specified by the PHA, the unit or lease will be approved.

4. Obligations of the Family
   A. When the family’s unit is approved and the HAP contract is executed, the family must follow the rules listed below in order to continue participating in the housing choice voucher program.
   B. The family must:
      1. Supply any information that the PHA or HUD determines to be necessary including evidence of citizenship or eligible immigration status, and information for use in a regularly scheduled reexamination or interim reexamination of family income and composition.
      2. Disclose and verify social security numbers and sign and submit consent forms for obtaining information.
      3. Supply any information requested by the PHA to verify that the family is living in the unit or information related to family absence from the unit.
      4. Promptly notify the PHA in writing when the family is away from the unit for an extended period of time in accordance with PHA policies.
      5. Allow the PHA to inspect the unit at reasonable times and after reasonable notice.
      6. Notify the PHA and the owner in writing before moving out of the unit or terminating the lease.
      7. Use the assisted unit for residence by the family. The unit must be the family’s only residence.
      8. Promptly notify the PHA in writing, of the birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody of a child.
      9. Request PHA written approval to add any other family member as an occupant of the unit.
     10. Promptly notify the PHA in writing if any family member no longer lives in the unit. Give the PHA a copy of any owner eviction notice.
     11. Pay utility bills and provide and maintain any appliances that the owner is not required to provide under the lease.
     12. Attend informational briefings/required appointments including but not limited to those scheduled to discuss violations of Family Obligations and allegations of criminal activity in the family’s unit, building or neighborhood.
     13. Request and obtain CHA approval before adding a live-in aide to the household.
     14. Notify CHA of the arrest of a household member within 10 days of the occurrence for violent or criminal activity against persons or property, or involving alcohol, gangs, drugs and/or weapons.
   C. Any information the family supplies must be true and complete.
   D. The family (including each family member) must not:
      1. Own or have any interest in the unit (other than in a cooperative, or the owner of a manufactured home leasing a manufactured home space).
      2. Commit any serious or repeated violation of the lease.
3. Commit fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with the program.

4. Engage in or allow guests to engage in drug-related criminal activity or violent criminal activity or other criminal activity that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of other residents and persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.

5. Sublease or let the unit or assign the lease or transfer the unit.

6. Receive housing choice voucher program housing assistance while receiving another housing subsidy, for the same unit or a different unit under any other Federal, State or local housing assistance program.

7. Damage the unit or premises (other than damage from ordinary wear and tear) or permit any guest to damage the unit or premises.

8. Receive housing choice voucher program housing assistance while residing in a unit owned by a spouse, parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother of any member of the family, unless the PHA has determined (and has notified the owner and the family in writing of such determination) that approving rental of the unit, notwithstanding such relationship, would provide reasonable accommodation for a family member who is a person with disabilities.

9. Engage in abuse of alcohol in a way that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the other residents and persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.

10. Engage in or allow guests to engage in any behavior that disturbs the peaceful and quiet enjoyment by others of the premises and the neighborhood.

11. Threaten or engage in or allow guests to threaten or engage in abusive or violent behavior toward CHA personnel or its representatives.

12. Possess or use a firearm or aggravated assault weapon in violation of federal, state or local criminal or civil laws.

13. Be a registered sex offender in any state or territory of the United States.

14. Be convicted of a drug-related crime for the manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of federally assisted housing.

5. Illegal Discrimination

If the family has reason to believe that, in its search for suitable housing, it has been discriminated against on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, disability, national origin, or familial status, the family may file a housing discrimination complaint with any HUD Field Office in person, by mail, or by telephone. The PHA will give the family information on how to fill out and file a complaint.

6. Expiration and Extension of Voucher

The voucher will expire on the date stated in item 3 on the top of page one of this voucher unless the family requests an extension in writing and the PHA grants a written extension of the voucher in which case the voucher will expire on the date stated in item 4. At its discretion, the PHA may grant a family’s request for one or more extensions of the initial term.

Resources for People with Disabilities

What resources are available for people with disabilities?
To make sure that any person with a disability has equal access to CHA programs and services, CHA asks all Applicants, Voucher Holders and Participants whether they need any accommodations. A reasonable accommodation is an adjustment that allows a person with a disability to enjoy the Program in the same way as any other Applicant, Voucher Holder or Participant.

CHA defines a person with a disability as an individual who meets one of the following descriptions:

- A person with a physical, mental or developmental impairment that limits one or more major life activities
- A person that has a record of such impairment
- A person that is regarded as having such an impairment
What is a reasonable accommodation?
Here are some examples of reasonable accommodations:

- Assistance in filling out forms
- Allowing a person to submit forms by mail instead of in person
- Giving an Applicant, Voucher Holder or Participant additional time to turn in documents or complete a re-examination
- Conducting home visits
- Providing Text Telephone Display (TTD) or Teletype (TTY)
- Providing documents in large print, Braille or audio format
- Providing sign language services
- Approving an additional bedroom in a unit for a live-in aide
- Providing more rental assistance if needed to find accessible housing

An Applicant, Voucher Holder or Participant may request a reasonable accommodation at any time including:

- When applying for the HCV Program
- While they live in a unit
- If threatened with eviction

To request an accommodation, refer to the Reasonable Accommodation Request Form on pages 71-73, download the form online at www.thecha.org/forms or contact the CHA Customer Call Center at 312-935-2600 (TTY: 312-461-0079) or hcv@thecha.org. CHA will review and respond to your request within 30 days. Additional information may be required. If approved, you will be required to verify the need for the reasonable accommodation at each regular re-examination.

Requesting approval for a reasonable accommodation from the Owner can vary. For some, a verbal request may suffice. Others may require a request in writing along with documentation that supports your need for the accommodation. Once you provide the required documentation, the Owner must consider your request even if it does not “look like” you are a person with a disability.

The list below gives some examples of a reasonable accommodation given by the Owner:

- Giving a Voucher Holder additional time to submit their rental application
- Allowing the Participant to pay their rent by mail
- Waiving a policy against pets so that a person with a disability can have a service animal
- Allowing a Participant to add one additional bedroom to their voucher to accommodate a live-in aide

CHA and Owners must make a reasonable effort to provide accommodations to a person with a disability. However, they are not required to approve every request. A request for accommodation must be directly related to the disability and be practical and feasible.

*Rev. 1/11 barcode: Reas Accommodation
What is a reasonable modification?
Reasonable modifications are physical alterations to a unit that allow a person with a disability to live in and fully enjoy the premises.

You will find some examples of reasonable modifications below:
- Flashing door bells or fire alarms for a person with a hearing disability
- Modifications to a unit to accommodate a wheelchair
- Ramps
- Motorized lifts
- Protective wall plastic to prevent wheelchair damage

How are reasonable modifications made?
The law requires Owners to allow a modification as long as the following are true:
- You pay for the modification
- It does not fundamentally alter their business goals or purposes
- It does not cause undue administrative burden
- It does not violate the terms of your lease or their contract with CHA

Some Owners will prefer the request to be in writing and include documentation that proves the need for a modification.

The Owner has the right to approve the work performed to make the modification. They may also require that you leave the unit in a condition acceptable to someone that does not need the modification. For example, if you remove cabinets in a bathroom to allow wheelchair access to a sink, you may need to replace the cabinets when you leave.

What if I can’t afford to pay for a reasonable modification?
A partnership between CHA and Access Living provides funding for people that need to make modifications to their unit. You may apply for grants of up to $5,000. For more information, or to apply for a grant, contact Access Living at 312-640-2100 (TTY: 312-640-2102).

Translation and Interpreter Services

Resources for Victims of Domestic Violence

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) is a federal law that protects victims (both men and women) of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking who apply for or live in private housing with a voucher. The law covers the head of household and family members living in the household. In Illinois, victims of domestic violence are also covered by the Safe Homes Act.

Protections for Victims Who Are Applicants or Participants

1. CHA may not deny admission to the HCV Program if a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking can show that the reason for the denial is connected to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

2. CHA may not terminate a Participant because he/she is a victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

3. CHA may not terminate a domestic violence, dating violence or stalking victim from the HCV Program because the abuser committed a crime. Additionally, if the victim committed a crime because he/she was being abused, CHA may not terminate the victim.

4. If a domestic violence victim leaves the unit because of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, CHA will not consider him/her in violation of the lease or HCV Program requirements.

5. CHA can ‘split’ the family by terminating the abuser from the HCV Program while protecting the victim and other household members. The abuser will NOT be issued a separate voucher.

Limitations of VAWA Protections

1. CHA has the authority to terminate any Participant, including the victim, if it can demonstrate a threat to other tenants or to staff.

2. CHA can terminate a Participant for any violation of a lease that was not based on domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

Options Available to VAWA Victims

Bifurcate (Split) the Lease and Voucher
CHA may terminate the abuser and allow the victim to stay on the HCV Program. The Property Owner/Manager will also evict the abuser and allow the victim to stay in the unit. However, in order for this action to take place, the victim must provide proof of abuse to CHA and the Property Owner/Manager.

Note: When evicting the abuser from the household, the Property Owner/Manager must follow federal, state and local eviction procedures.

Request an Emergency Termination or Port Out
CHA may provide an emergency termination of the HAP Contract and give a voucher to the victim. The abuser will be removed from the voucher and cannot be a part of the household.
Victim Documentation:
If you are a victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, CHA and the Property Owner/Manager will ask you to provide verification within 14 business days. Acceptable types of documentation include:

- A completed and signed HUD Form-50066 (see pages 75-76)
- A police or court record documenting the actual or threatened abuse
- Documentation signed by a person who has assisted you in addressing domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence or stalking or the effects of such abuse. This person may be an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider; an attorney; or a medical or other knowledgeable professional.

The Safe Homes Act

- Victims may end a lease due to violence. If a Property Owner/Manager sues a tenant for rent, the tenant may not have to pay the rent after the date of leaving the unit if he/she (1) can show that the reason for leaving is due to an imminent threat of domestic or sexual violence and (2) gives written notice to the Property Owner/Manager within three days after leaving the property.

- Victims may change the locks of their unit. Tenants may request a lock change from the Property Owner/Manager but must provide written notice along with evidence of the danger. Within 48 hours, either the Property Owner/Manager will change the lock or give the tenant permission to change it. If the Property Owner/Manager fails to change the lock within 48 hours, the tenant may change it without permission.

Confidentiality
All domestic violence, dating violence or stalking documentation and information will be kept confidential by CHA.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Public and Indian Housing

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response. This includes the time for collecting, reviewing, and reporting the data. Information provided is to be used by PHAs and Section 8 owners or managers to request a tenant to certify that the individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. The information is subject to the confidentiality requirements of the HUD Reform Legislation. This agency may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 protects qualified tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them.

Use of Form: A family member must complete and submit this certification, or the information that may be provided in lieu of the certification, within 14 business days of receiving the written request for this certification by the PHA, owner or manager. The certification or alternate documentation must be returned to the person and address specified in the written request for the certification. If the family member has not provided the requested certification or the information that may be provided in lieu of the certification by the 14th business day or any extension of the date provided by the PHA, manager and owner, none of the protections afforded to victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking (collectively “domestic violence”) under the Section 8 or public housing programs apply.

Note that a family member may provide, in lieu of this certification (or in addition to it):

(1) A Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local police or court record; or
(2) Documentation signed by an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, or the effects of abuse, in which the professional attest under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1746) to the professional’s belief that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse, and the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking has signed or attested to the documentation.

CHA’s Fair Housing Act Information Sheet

The Chicago Housing Authority (CHA) and its designees must comply with federal, state and local laws that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability, including but not limited to the Federal Fair Housing Act (Title VIII), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI).

CHA does not discriminate against any person because of race, color, sex, gender identity, age, religion, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, martial status, military discharge status or source of income.

Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (Fair Housing Act), as amended, prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, and financing of dwellings, and in other housing-related transactions, based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status (including children under the age of 18 living with parents or legal custodians, pregnant women and people securing custody of children under the age of 18) and disability.

Section 504 provides that no otherwise qualified individual with a disability shall, solely by reason of his or her disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

In addition, CHA and its designees have a legal obligation to provide “reasonable accommodations/modifications” to public housing applicants with disabilities, as well as to residents and their family members with disabilities.

A reasonable accommodation is a change in rules, policies, practices or services so that a person with a disability will have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling unit or common space.

A reasonable modification is a structural modification that is made to allow persons with disabilities the full enjoyment of the housing and related facilities.

If you or any member of your family have a disability and believe that you need or require a reasonable accommodation/modification you may request it at any time during the application process or during your tenancy if admitted to the program. Reasonable Accommodation guides are available in your property management office.

In addition to requesting a reasonable accommodation or modification, you may also request assistance in a language other than English. Title VI requires all recipients of federal financial assistance from HUD to provide meaningful access to programs and activities to LEP (Limited English Proficiency) persons.

If you do not speak English as your primary language and have limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English you may be entitled to language assistance with a particular type of service, benefit or encounter.

You may request language assistance at any time during the application process or during your tenancy if admitted to the program. Please let the Occupancy Department or your Property Manager know if you need language assistance.

If you think your rights have been violated, please contact the ADA/Section 504 Compliance Department at: 312-913-7068 or 312-913-7072 (Voice) 312-454-1748 (TTY)

Important Reminder
If you submitted a Request for Tenancy Approval (RTA) packet and you have a child with a confirmed elevated blood level, there may be a slight delay in the process. For the protection of your child, you must provide CHA with a copy of the blood test results. The Chicago Department of Public Health will then conduct a risk assessment of the residence for lead hazards. Once completed, CHA will move forward with the RTA process and request a Housing Quality Standards (HQS) inspection be conducted.

Learn to Protect Your Child From Being Poisoned

It’s all about paint—old paint. Old paint can poison your child because it can contain lead.

Cracking, peeling, chipping, flaking paint in and around your home poses a danger to your child.

READ THIS PACKET CAREFULLY
It shows you specific steps you can take to help protect your child from lead poisoning.

YOU CAN PROTECT YOUR CHILD THROUGH:

1. EDUCATION
Knowing what to look for and who to contact.

2. HOUSEKEEPING
How you clean can make a difference.

3. DIET
What your child eats can make a difference.
Make sure your child eats right

The only truly effective way to keep your child safe from lead poisoning is to safely remove all lead sources from the child’s environment. However, the way you prepare meals and the food you serve can help protect your child from lead poisoning.

1. Clear out the lead from plumbing and pipes.
   Avoid cooking food in water that is contaminated by lead. ALWAYS run the cold water at least 10-30 seconds before using it for cooking or drinking. This helps clear the lead from the plumbing and pipes. Never use hot water for cooking or preparing formula.

2. Do NOT store foods in open cans or pottery.
   Lead glazed ceramic ware, pottery and crystal can transfer lead to foods.

   Children with good diets absorb less lead. Make sure your children eat healthy, low fat foods, high in iron, calcium and vitamin C. Diets should emphasize:
   - Foods rich in iron: Fish, tuna, dried fruit (raisins, dates, prunes), beans, lean meats or poultry (hamburger, beef, pork, chicken, fish-tuna), baked potatoes, greens (collard, kale, spinach, beet greens), iron fortified cereals, nuts, sunflower seeds, eggs, wheat germ or peanut butter.
   - Foods rich with calcium: Dairy products such as low-fat milk, low-fat yogurt, low-fat cheese, pancakes, custard, pudding and muffins.
   - Foods rich with vitamin C: Cantaloupe, oranges, sweet potatoes, lemons, strawberries, grapefruit and limes.

4. Reduce or avoid fried foods.
   It’s always best to broil, bake or boil food. Greasy and fried foods keep lead in your child’s system.

5. Wash Your Child’s Hands.
   Many children get lead poisoning from putting their hands in their mouth after playing around lead dust or paint. Always wash your child’s hands before each meal or snack to remove dirt and dust and help protect your child.
Housekeeping

Get the lead out of your house

Making sure your house is free of dust and dirt is another way to protect your child from lead poisoning.

1. Clean up paint chips IMMEDIATELY.
   Never allow any paint chips or dust from window sills, window frames, walls and other surfaces to lie around your home. Be sure to clean up these critical areas regularly, using a mop or sponge with warm water and any all-purpose cleaner such as Dawn dishwashing liquid that contains trisodium phosphate or a cleaner made especially for lead.

2. Thoroughly and completely clean tools.
   Rinse sponges, rags and mop heads after each use, to prevent transferring lead residue to other parts of your home.

3. Work wet and smart.
   Keeping dust and paint chips wet keeps them from becoming airborne and spreading contamination.

4. Keep your children's play area clean.
   Wash bottles, pacifiers, toys and stuffed animals regularly.

5. Do not track in lead from outside.
   Clean or remove shoes before entering your home.
YOU CAN help protect your child from lead poisoning

Lead is the problem:
Before we knew how harmful lead could be, it was used in paint, gasoline, water pipes, and many other products. Now that we know the dangers of lead, the use of lead in house paint and plumbing materials has been banned, and leaded gasoline is being phased out. That’s the good news.

Unfortunately, because these items once contained lead, lead can be present in your home or apartment in levels that can make your child very sick. It’s called lead poisoning, and it’s a big problem in Chicago because the majority of the housing in Chicago was built prior to 1978, before the use of lead paint in homes was banned.

Many homes still have lead paint surfaces and lead in the pipes, which present a real danger for lead poisoning. Swallowing lead paint chips is the most common cause of lead poisoning, but breathing dust from lead-based paint can also make your child sick, even though this dust cannot be easily seen.

Who’s at risk:
Every child under the age of six must be protected from lead poisoning. While anyone can get lead poisoning, babies and very small children are particularly at risk because they put things in their mouths and their small bodies absorb lead more easily. If you are pregnant, avoid exposing yourself to lead. Lead can pass through your body and harm your unborn baby.

The effects:
Lead poisoning is an extremely serious condition. Brain damage and mental retardation, hearing loss, behavioral problems and damage to a child’s kidneys and stomach are just some of the effects of lead poisoning. Exposure to high levels of lead causes seizures, unconsciousness, and even death.

What to look for:
If your child is always tired, can’t ever seem to sit still, is grouchy, has an unusual amount of headaches and trouble sleeping at night, he or she should be tested. Other early signs to watch out for include loss of appetite, weight loss, and constipation.
How to protect your child from lead poisoning

You may have lead around your building without knowing it because you can’t see, taste or smell lead. Even the dust from defective paint is dangerous. The good news is there are easy things you can do to help protect your child.

1 Testing is EXTREMELY important.

Get your children tested for lead poisoning regularly, even if they seem healthy. Early treatment of lead poisoning is very important and, in order to limit the injuries that can result. The Chicago Department of Public Health’s guidelines recommend that children be tested at a minimum at the following ages: 9, 15 and 24 months and then annually through age 6 (if past test results are at .10 ug/dL or above). Also, if any past test result is above 10 ug/dL, your child should be tested soon after moving into any residence built before 1978. A list of agencies that provide free blood screening, the test that determines whether your child has lead poisoning, is included in this packet.

2 Act quickly – if you suspect your child is poisoned.

If you have a child who has tested with an elevated blood lead level of 20 ug/dL or has been tested on two occasions with elevated blood levels of 15-19 ug/dL, in addition to seeking proper medical care, immediately call the Chicago Department of Public Health and CHA to request a lead inspection of the unit. Early detection and treatment are extremely important to limit the damage that can occur from lead poisoning.

3 Paint is the BIGGEST problem.

Paint that is cracking, peeling, chipping or flaking is extremely dangerous. Children can eat these pieces of paint or breathe the dust from the paint and get poisoned. Also, make sure your child does not chew on ANYTHING covered with paint.

4 Make sure your landlord lives up to his responsibilities.

If you see any chipping, peeling, cracking or flaking paint in your home, call your landlord immediately to have the defective paint corrected. You should also advise CHA of any defective paint. Do NOT try to remove lead-based paint yourself. Experts must remove lead paint. Make sure your landlord hires a person who has special training and is licensed for correcting lead paint problems to remove the lead from your home. The person must know how to do this work safely and have the proper equipment to clean up thoroughly.

Be sure your landlord or the contractor is using safe work practices when painting, remodeling or renovating your house or apartment. This includes working wet, removing or covering your furniture and belongings from the work area, covering the floors with plastic, and properly and thoroughly cleaning up.

Your landlord is responsible for notifying you of any repairs to be made related to lead paint or paint removal and when the repairs are completed.
5 Watch where and what your child plays with.

Most children are poisoned by lead dust that gets on their hands and then in their mouths. Wash your child’s hands, bottles, toys, pacifiers, and other things that he or she puts in his or her mouth regularly. Do not let your child play in bare soil. Soil also can be contaminated by flaking and peeling lead-based paint.

6 Clean up safely.

Clean up often, and buy a wet mop or cloth to clean floors, window sills, mini blinds, furniture, and other surfaces. Pay particular attention to dusty and dirty areas, and be sure to rinse sponges and mops thoroughly after each use.

7 Be aware of other sources of lead poisoning.

Lead paint, dust and soil are the most common sources of lead, but other ways that children can get sick from lead include:

- Food or liquid stored in lead crystal or lead-glazed pottery or porcelain can become contaminated with lead.
- Hobbies, such as making pottery, stained glass or refinishing furniture, can involve lead.
- Folk remedies may contain lead, such as “Greta” and “Azarcon” used to treat an upset stomach or “pay loo ah” used to treat a rash or fever.
- Painted toys, household furniture and outdoor furniture may have lead. Do not let children chew on painted toys or furniture, such as cribs or playpens.
- Children get exposed to lead when their parents bring home lead dust on their clothes, shoes, hair or skin.
- Some imported, non-glossy, vinyl mini-blinds can be a lead hazard. Sunlight and heat can break down the blinds, possibly releasing lead-contaminated dust. Look for products with labels that say “new formulation,” “non-leaded formula,” “no lead added,” or “new non-leaded vinyl formulation.”

IMPORTANT: CHA’s HQS Procedure

If you see chipping, peeling, cracking or flaking paint, do not wait. Please contact your landlord immediately and also request an inspection from CHA.

Even if you do not request an inspection, CHA will conduct a Housing Quality Standards (HQS) inspection before you move into any new unit leased under the Housing Choice Voucher Program and at least once a year thereafter. This inspection includes a visual assessment of any deteriorated paint violations, such as chipping, peeling, cracking or flaking paint. CHA will then notify both the tenant and landlord.

Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home

United States Environmental Protection Agency
United States Consumer Product Safety Commission
United States Department of Housing and Urban Development
Many houses and apartments built before 1978 have paint that contains high levels of lead (called lead-based paint). Lead from paint, chips, and dust can pose serious health hazards if not taken care of properly.

OWNERS, BUYERS, and RENTERS are encouraged to check for lead (see page 6) before renting, buying or renovating pre-1978 housing.

Federal law requires that individuals receive certain information before renting, buying, or renovating pre-1978 housing:

LANDLORDS have to disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before leases take effect. Leases must include a disclosure about lead-based paint.

SELLERS have to disclose known information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards before selling a house. Sales contracts must include a disclosure about lead-based paint. Buyers have up to 10 days to check for lead.

RENOVATORS disturbing more than 2 square feet of painted surfaces have to give you this pamphlet before starting work.
IMPORTANT!

Lead From Paint, Dust, and Soil Can Be Dangerous If Not Managed Properly

FACT: Lead exposure can harm young children and babies even before they are born.

FACT: Even children who seem healthy can have high levels of lead in their bodies.

FACT: People can get lead in their bodies by breathing or swallowing lead dust, or by eating soil or paint chips containing lead.

FACT: People have many options for reducing lead hazards. In most cases, lead-based paint that is in good condition is not a hazard.

FACT: Removing lead-based paint improperly can increase the danger to your family.

If you think your home might have lead hazards, read this pamphlet to learn some simple steps to protect your family.
People can get lead in their body if they:
- Breathe in lead dust (especially during renovations that disturb painted surfaces).
- Put their hands or other objects covered with lead dust in their mouths.
- Eat paint chips or soil that contains lead.

Lead is even more dangerous to children under the age of 6:
- At this age children’s brains and nervous systems are more sensitive to the damaging effects of lead.
- Children’s growing bodies absorb more lead.
- Babies and young children often put their hands and other objects in their mouths. These objects can have lead dust on them.

Lead is also dangerous to women of childbearing age:
- Women with a high lead level in their system prior to pregnancy would expose a fetus to lead through the placenta during fetal development.
Lead’s Effects

It is important to know that even exposure to low levels of lead can severely harm children.

In children, lead can cause:
- Nervous system and kidney damage.
- Learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, and decreased intelligence.
- Speech, language, and behavior problems.
- Poor muscle coordination.
- Decreased muscle and bone growth.
- Hearing damage.

While low-lead exposure is most common, exposure to high levels of lead can have devastating effects on children, including seizures, unconsciousness, and, in some cases, death.

Although children are especially susceptible to lead exposure, lead can be dangerous for adults too.

In adults, lead can cause:
- Increased chance of illness during pregnancy.
- Harm to a fetus, including brain damage or death.
- Fertility problems (in men and women).
- High blood pressure.
- Digestive problems.
- Nerve disorders.
- Memory and concentration problems.
- Muscle and joint pain.

Lead affects the body in many ways.
Many homes built before 1978 have lead-based paint. The federal government banned lead-based paint from housing in 1978. Some states stopped its use even earlier. Lead can be found:

- In homes in the city, country, or suburbs.
- In apartments, single-family homes, and both private and public housing.
- Inside and outside of the house.
- In soil around a home. (Soil can pick up lead from exterior paint or other sources such as past use of leaded gas in cars.)

To reduce your child's exposure to lead, get your child checked, have your home tested (especially if your home has paint in poor condition and was built before 1978), and fix any hazards you may have. Children's blood lead levels tend to increase rapidly from 6 to 12 months of age, and tend to peak at 18 to 24 months of age.

Consult your doctor for advice on testing your children. A simple blood test can detect high levels of lead. Blood tests are usually recommended for:

- Children at ages 1 and 2.
- Children or other family members who have been exposed to high levels of lead.
- Children who should be tested under your state or local health screening plan.

Your doctor can explain what the test results mean and if more testing will be needed.
Lead-based paint is usually not a hazard if it is in good condition, and it is not on an impact or friction surface, like a window. It is defined by the federal government as paint with lead levels greater than or equal to 1.0 milligram per square centimeter, or more than 0.5% by weight.

Deteriorating lead-based paint (peeling, chipping, chalking, cracking or damaged) is a hazard and needs immediate attention. It may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear-and-tear, such as:

- Windows and window sills.
- Doors and door frames.
- Stairs, railings, banisters, and porches.

Lead dust can form when lead-based paint is scraped, sanded, or heated. Dust also forms when painted surfaces bump or rub together. Lead chips and dust can get on surfaces and objects that people touch. Settled lead dust can re-enter the air when people vacuum, sweep, or walk through it. The following two federal standards have been set for lead hazards in dust:

- 40 micrograms per square foot (μg/ft²) and higher for floors, including carpeted floors.
- 250 μg/ft² and higher for interior window sills.

Lead in soil can be a hazard when children play in bare soil or when people bring soil into the house on their shoes. The following two federal standards have been set for lead hazards in residential soil:

- 400 parts per million (ppm) and higher in play areas of bare soil.
- 1,200 ppm (average) and higher in bare soil in the remainder of the yard.

The only way to find out if paint, dust and soil lead hazards exist is to test for them. The next page describes the most common methods used.
Checking Your Home for Lead

Just knowing that a home has lead-based paint may not tell you if there is a hazard.

You can get your home tested for lead in several different ways:

◆ A paint inspection tells you whether your home has lead-based paint and where it is located. It won’t tell you whether or not your home currently has lead hazards.

◆ A risk assessment tells you if your home currently has any lead hazards from lead in paint, dust, or soil. It also tells you what actions to take to address any hazards.

◆ A combination risk assessment and inspection tells you if your home has any lead hazards and if your home has any lead-based paint, and where the lead-based paint is located.

Hire a trained and certified testing professional who will use a range of reliable methods when testing your home.

◆ Visual inspection of paint condition and location.

◆ A portable x-ray fluorescence (XRF) machine.

There are state and federal programs in place to ensure that testing is done safely, reliably, and effectively. Contact your state or local agency (see bottom of page 11) for more information, or call 1-800-424-LEAD (5323) for a list of contacts in your area.

Home test kits for lead are available, but may not always be accurate. Consumers should not rely on these kits before doing renovations or to assure safety.
What You Can Do Now To Protect Your Family

If you suspect that your house has lead hazards, you can take some immediate steps to reduce your family's risk:

- If you rent, notify your landlord of peeling or chipping paint.
- Clean up paint chips immediately.
- Clean floors, window frames, window sills, and other surfaces weekly. Use a mop or sponge with warm water and a general all-purpose cleaner or a cleaner made specifically for lead. REMEMBER: NEVER MIX AMMONIA AND BLEACH PRODUCTS TOGETHER SINCE THEY CAN FORM A DANGEROUS GAS.
- Thoroughly rinse sponges and mop heads after cleaning dirty or dusty areas.
- Wash children's hands often, especially before they eat and before nap time and bed time.
- Keep play areas clean. Wash bottles, pacifiers, toys, and stuffed animals regularly.
- Keep children from chewing window sills or other painted surfaces.
- Clean or remove shoes before entering your home to avoid tracking in lead from soil.
- Make sure children eat nutritious, low-fat meals high in iron and calcium, such as spinach and dairy products. Children with good diets absorb less lead.
In addition to day-to-day cleaning and good nutrition:

- You can temporarily reduce lead hazards by taking actions such as repairing damaged painted surfaces and planting grass to cover soil with high lead levels. These actions (called “interim controls”) are not permanent solutions and will need ongoing attention.

- To permanently remove lead hazards, you should hire a certified lead “abatement” contractor. Abatement (or permanent hazard elimination) methods include removing, sealing, or enclosing lead-based paint with special materials. Just painting over the hazard with regular paint is not permanent removal.

Always hire a person with special training for correcting lead problems—someone who knows how to do this work safely and has the proper equipment to clean up thoroughly. Certified contractors will employ qualified workers and follow strict safety rules as set by their state or by the federal government.

Once the work is completed, dust cleanup activities must be repeated until testing indicates that lead dust levels are below the following:

- 40 micrograms per square foot (μg/ft²) for floors, including carpeted floors;
- 250 μg/ft² for interior windows sills; and
- 400 μg/ft² for window troughs.

Call your state or local agency (see bottom of page 11) for help in locating certified professionals in your area and to see if financial assistance is available.
Remodeling or Renovating a Home With Lead-Based Paint

Take precautions before your contractor or you begin remodeling or renovating anything that disturbs painted surfaces (such as scraping off paint or tearing out walls):

- Have the area tested for lead-based paint.

- Do not use a belt-sander, propane torch, high temperature heat gun, dry scraper, or dry sandpaper to remove lead-based paint. These actions create large amounts of lead dust and fumes. Lead dust can remain in your home long after the work is done.

- Temporarily move your family (especially children and pregnant women) out of the apartment or house until the work is done and the area is properly cleaned. If you can’t move your family, at least completely seal off the work area.

- Follow other safety measures to reduce lead hazards. You can find out about other safety measures by calling 1-800-424-LEAD. Ask for the brochure “Reducing Lead Hazards When Remodeling Your Home.” This brochure explains what to do before, during, and after renovations.

If you have already completed renovations or remodeling that could have released lead-based paint or dust, get your young children tested and follow the steps outlined on page 7 of this brochure.
Other Sources of Lead

Drinking water. Your home might have plumbing with lead or lead solder. Call your local health department or water supplier to find out about testing your water. You cannot see, smell, or taste lead, and boiling your water will not get rid of lead. If you think your plumbing might have lead in it:

- Use only cold water for drinking and cooking.
- Run water for 15 to 30 seconds before drinking it, especially if you have not used your water for a few hours.

The job. If you work with lead, you could bring it home on your hands or clothes. Shower and change clothes before coming home. Launder your work clothes separately from the rest of your family’s clothes.

- Old painted toys and furniture.
- Food and liquids stored in lead crystal or lead-glazed pottery or porcelain.
- Lead smelters or other industries that release lead into the air.
- Hobbies that use lead, such as making pottery or stained glass, or refinishing furniture.
- Folk remedies that contain lead, such as “greta” and “azarcon” used to treat an upset stomach.

If you think your home has high levels of lead:

- Get your young children tested for lead, even if they seem healthy.
- Wash children’s hands, bottles, pacifiers, and toys often.
- Make sure children eat healthy, low-fat foods.
- Get your home checked for lead hazards.
- Regularly clean floors, window sills, and other surfaces.
- Wipe soil off shoes before entering house.
- Talk to your landlord about fixing surfaces with peeling or chipping paint.
- Take precautions to avoid exposure to lead dust when remodeling or renovating (call 1-800-424-LEAD for guidelines).
- Don’t use a belt-sander, propane torch, high temperature heat gun, scraper, or sandpaper on painted surfaces that may contain lead.
- Don’t try to remove lead-based paint yourself.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS AND PARTICIPANTS OF THE FOLLOWING HUD RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS:

- Public Housing (24 CFR 960)
- Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher, including the Disaster Housing Assistance Program (24 CFR 982)
- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation (24 CFR 882)
- Project-Based Voucher (24 CFR 983)

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development maintains a national repository of debts owed to Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) or Section 8 landlords and adverse information of former participants who have voluntarily or involuntarily terminated participation in one of the above-listed HUD rental assistance programs. This information is maintained within HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, which is used by Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) and their management agents to verify employment and income information of program participants, as well as, to reduce administrative and rental assistance payment errors. The EIV system is designed to assist PHAs and HUD in ensuring that families are eligible to participate in HUD rental assistance programs and determining the correct amount of rental assistance a family is eligible for. All PHAs are required to use this system in accordance with HUD regulations at 24 CFR 5.233.

HUD requires PHAs, which administers the above-listed rental housing programs, to report certain information at the conclusion of your participation in a HUD rental assistance program. This notice provides you with information on what information the PHA is required to provide HUD, who will have access to this information, how this information is used and your rights. PHAs are required to provide this notice to all applicants and program participants and you are required to acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing page 2. Each adult household member must sign this form.

What information about you and your tenancy does HUD collect from the PHA?

The following information is collected about each member of your household (family composition): full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number.

The following adverse information is collected once your participation in the housing program has ended, whether you voluntarily or involuntarily move out of an assisted unit:

1. Amount of any balance you owe the PHA or Section 8 landlord (up to $500,000) and explanation for balance owed (i.e. unpaid rent, retroactive rent (due to unreported income and/ or change in family composition) or other charges such as damages, utility charges, etc.); and
2. Whether or not you have entered into a repayment agreement for the amount that you owe the PHA; and
3. Whether or not you have defaulted on a repayment agreement; and
4. Whether or not the PHA has obtained a judgment against you; and
5. Whether or not you have filed for bankruptcy; and
6. The negative reason(s) for your end of participation or any negative status (i.e. abandoned unit, fraud, lease violations, criminal activity, etc.) as of the end of participation date.
Who will have access to the information collected?
This information will be available to HUD employees, PHA employees, and contractors of HUD and PHAs.

How will this information be used?
PHAs will have access to this information during the time of application for rental assistance and reexamination of family income and composition for existing participants. PHAs will be able to access this information to determine a family’s suitability for initial or continued rental assistance, and avoid providing limited Federal housing assistance to families who have previously been unable to comply with HUD program requirements. If the reported information is accurate, your current rental assistance may be terminated and your future request for HUD rental assistance may be denied for a period of up to ten years from the date you moved out of an assisted unit or were terminated from a HUD rental assistance program.

How long is the debt owed and termination information maintained in EIV?
Debt owed and termination information will be maintained in EIV for a period of up to ten (10) years from the end of participation date.

What are my rights?
In accordance with the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 USC 552a) and HUD regulations pertaining to its implementation of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (24 CFR Part 16), you have the following rights:
1. To have access to your records maintained by HUD.
2. To have an administrative review of HUD’s initial denial of your request to have access to your records maintained by HUD.
3. To have incorrect information in your record corrected upon written request.
4. To file an appeal request of an initial adverse determination on correction or amendment of record request within 30 calendar days after the issuance of the written denial.
5. To have your record disclosed to a third party upon receipt of your written and signed request.

What do I do if I dispute the debt or termination information reported about me?
You should contact the PHA, who has reported this information about you, in writing, if you disagree with the reported information. The PHA’s name, address, and telephone numbers are listed on the Debts Owed and Termination Report. You have a right to request and obtain a copy of this report from the PHA. Inform the PHA why you dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. Disputes must be made within three years from the end of participation date. Otherwise the debt and termination information is presumed correct. Only the PHA who reported the adverse information about you can delete or correct your record.

Your filing of bankruptcy will not result in the removal of debt owed or termination information from HUD’s EIV system. However, if you have included this debt in your bankruptcy filing and/or this debt has been discharged by the bankruptcy court, your record will be updated to include the bankruptcy indicator, when you provide the PHA with documentation of your bankruptcy status.

The PHA will notify you in writing of its action regarding your dispute within 30 days of receiving your written dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is correct, the PHA will provide an explanation as to why the information is correct.

Part C of HAP Contract: Tenancy Addendum

1. Section 8 Voucher Program
   - a. The owner is leasing the contract unit to the tenant for occupancy by the tenant’s family with assistance for a tenancy under the Section 8 housing choice voucher program (voucher program) of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).
   - b. The owner has entered into a Housing Assistance Payments Contract (HAP contract) with the PHA under the voucher program. Under the HAP contract, the PHA will make housing assistance payments to the owner to assist the tenant in leasing the unit from the owner.

2. Lease
   - a. The owner has given the PHA a copy of the lease, including any revisions agreed by the owner and the tenant. The owner certifies that the terms of the lease are in accordance with all provisions of the HAP contract and that the lease includes the tenancy addendum.
   - b. The tenant shall have the right to enforce the tenancy addendum against the owner. If there is any conflict between the tenancy addendum and any other provisions of the lease, the language of the tenancy addendum shall control.

3. Use of Contract Unit
   - a. During the lease term, the family will reside in the contract unit with assistance under the voucher program.
   - b. The composition of the household must be approved by the PHA. The family must promptly inform the PHA of the birth, adoption or court-awarded custody of a child. Other persons may not be added to the household without prior written approval of the owner and the PHA.
   - c. The contract unit may only be used for residence by the PHA-approved household members. The unit must be the family’s only residence. Members of the household may engage in legal profit making activities incidental to primary use of the unit for residence by members of the family.
   - d. The tenant may not sublease or let the unit.
   - e. The tenant may not assign the lease or transfer the unit.

4. Rent to Owner
   - a. The initial rent to owner may not exceed the amount approved by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements.
   - b. Changes in the rent to owner shall be determined by the provisions of the lease. However, the owner may not raise the rent during the initial term of the lease.
   - c. During the term of the lease (including the initial term of the lease and any extension term), the rent to owner may at no time exceed:
     1. The reasonable rent for the unit as most recently determined or redetermined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements, or
     2. Rent charged by the owner for comparable unsubsidized units in the premises.

5. Family Payment to Owner
   - a. The family is responsible for paying the owner any portion of the rent to owner that is not covered by the PHA housing assistance payment.
   - b. Each month, the PHA will make a housing assistance payment to the owner on behalf of the family in accordance with the HAP contract. The amount of the monthly housing assistance payment will be determined by the PHA in accordance with HUD requirements for a tenancy under the Section 8 voucher program.
   - c. The monthly housing assistance payment shall be credited against the monthly rent to owner for the contract unit.
   - d. The tenant is not responsible for paying the portion of rent to owner covered by the PHA housing assistance payment under the HAP contract between the owner and the PHA. A PHA failure to pay the housing assistance payment to the owner is not a violation of the lease. The owner may not terminate the tenancy for nonpayment of the PHA housing assistance payment.
   - e. The owner may not charge or accept, from the family or from any other source, any payment for rent of the unit in addition to the rent to owner. Rent to owner includes all housing services, maintenance, utilities and appliances to be provided and paid by the owner in accordance with the lease.
   - f. The owner must immediately return any excess rent payment to the tenant.

6. Other Fees and Charges
   - a. Rent to owner does not include cost of any meals or supportive services or furniture which may be provided by the owner.
   - b. The owner may not require the tenant or family members to pay charges for any meals or supportive services or furniture which may be provided by the owner. Nonpayment of any such charges is not grounds for termination of tenancy.
   - c. The owner may not charge the tenant extra amounts for items customarily included in rent to owner in the locality, or provided at no additional cost to unsubsidized tenants in the premises.

7. Maintenance, Utilities, and Other Services
   - a. Maintenance

8. Termination of Tenancy by Owner

a. Requirements. The owner may only terminate the tenancy in accordance with the lease and HUD requirements.

b. Grounds. During the term of the lease (the initial term of the lease or any extension term), the owner may only terminate the tenancy because of:

(1) Serious or repeated violation of the lease; or

(2) Violation of Federal, State, or local law that imposes obligations on the tenant in connection with the occupancy or use of the unit and the premises; or

(3) Criminal activity or alcohol abuse (as provided in paragraph c); or

(4) Other good cause (as provided in paragraph d).

c. Criminal activity or alcohol abuse.

(1) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household, a guest or another person under a resident’s control commits any of the following types of criminal activity:

(a) Any criminal activity that threatens the health or safety of, or the right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by, other residents (including property management staff residing on the premises);

(b) Any criminal activity that threatens the health or safety of, or the right to peaceful enjoyment of their residences by, persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises; or

(c) Any violent criminal activity on or near the premises; or

(d) Any drug-related criminal activity on or near the premises.

(2) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household is:

(a) Fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, for a crime, or attempt to commit a crime, that is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or that, in the case of the State of New Jersey, is a high misdemeanor; or

(b) Violating a condition of probation or parole under Federal or State law.

(3) The owner may terminate the tenancy for criminal activity by a household member in accordance with this section if the owner determines that the household member has committed the criminal activity, regardless of whether the household member has been arrested or convicted for such activity.

(4) The owner may terminate the tenancy during the term of the lease if any member of the household has engaged in abuse of alcohol that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

d. Other good cause for termination of tenancy

(1) During the initial lease term, other good cause for termination of tenancy must be something the family did or failed to do.

(2) During the initial lease term or during any extension term, other good cause may include:

(a) Disturbance of neighbors,

(b) Destruction of property, or

(c) Living or housekeeping habits that cause damage to the unit or premises.

(3) After the initial lease term, such good cause may include:

(a) The tenant’s failure to accept the owner’s offer of a new lease or revision;

(b) The owner’s desire to use the unit for personal or family use or for a purpose other than use as a residential rental unit; or

(c) A business or economic reason for termination of the tenancy (such as sale of the property, renovation of the unit, the owner’s desire to rent the unit for a higher rent).

(5) The examples of other good cause in this paragraph do not preempt any State or local laws to the contrary.

(6) In the case of an owner who is an immediate successor in interest pursuant to foreclosure during the term of the lease, requiring the tenant to vacate the property prior to sale shall not constitute other good cause, except that the owner may terminate the tenancy effective on the date of transfer of the unit to the owner if the owner:

(a) will occupy the unit as a primary residence; and (b) has provided the tenant a notice to vacate at least 90 days before the effective date of such notice.

provision shall not affect any State or local law that provides for longer time periods or addition protections for tenants. This provision will sunset on December 31, 2012 unless extended by law.

e. Protections for Victims of Abuse.

(1) An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease or other “good cause” for termination of the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of such a victim.

(2) Criminal activity directly relating to abuse, engaged in by a member of a tenant’s household or any guest or other person under the tenant’s control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant’s family is the victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

(3) Notwithstanding any restrictions on admission, occupancy, or terminations of occupancy or assistance, or any Federal, State or local law to the contrary, a PHA, owner or manager may “bifurcate” a lease, or otherwise remove a household member from a lease, without regard to whether a household member is a signatory to the lease, in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others. This action may be taken without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of the violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant. Such eviction, removal, termination of occupancy rights, or termination of assistance shall be effected in accordance with the procedures prescribed by Federal, State, and local law for the termination of leases or assistance under the housing choice voucher program.

(4) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the authority of a public housing agency, owner, or manager, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

(5) Nothing in this section limits any otherwise available authority of an owner or manager to evict or the public housing agency to terminate assistance to a tenant for any violation of a lease not premised on the act or acts of violence in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant’s household, provided that the owner, manager, or public housing agency does not subject an individual who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict or terminate.

(6) Nothing in this section may be construed to limit the authority of an owner or manager to evict, or the public housing agency to terminate assistance, to any tenant if the owner, manager, or public housing agency can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if the tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede any provision of any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection than this section for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

f. Eviction by court action. The owner may only evict the tenant by a court action.

g. Owner notice of grounds

(1) At or before the beginning of a court action to evict the tenant, the owner must give the tenant a notice that specifies the grounds for termination of tenancy. The notice may be included in or combined with any owner eviction notice.

(2) The owner must give the PHA a copy of any owner eviction notice at the same time the owner notifies the tenant.

(3) Eviction notice means a notice to vacate, or a complaint or other initial pleading used to begin an eviction action under State or local law.

9. Lease: Relation to HAP Contract
If the HAP contract terminates for any reason, the lease terminates automatically.

10. PHA Termination of Assistance
The PHA may terminate program assistance for the family for any grounds authorized in accordance with HUD requirements. If the PHA terminates program assistance for the family, the lease terminates automatically.

11. Family Move Out
The tenant must notify the PHA and the owner before the family moves out of the unit.

12. Security Deposit
a. The owner may collect a security deposit from the tenant. (However, the PHA may prohibit the owner from collecting a security deposit in excess of private market practice, or in excess of amounts charged by the owner to unassisted tenants. Any such PHA-required restriction must be specified in the HAP contract.)

b. When the family moves out of the contract unit, the owner, subject to State and local law, may use the security deposit, including any interest on the deposit, as reimbursement for any unpaid rent payable by the tenant, any damages to the unit or any other amounts that the tenant owes under the lease.

LEASE COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS:

1. RENT: Lessee shall pay to Lessor or Lessor’s authorized agent, at the address set forth above, or as hereafter changed by written notice to Lessee, as rent for the Premises, the sum stated above. Rent is due and payable on the first day of each calendar month, in advance. The timely payment of each installment of rent is deemed to be of the essence of this Lease.

2. LATE CHARGES: Rent received by Lessor later than the 5th day of the month on which such payment is due shall bear a late charge of $10.00 plus 5% of any rent due in excess of $500.00. If Lessee mails rent to Lessor, the late charge will apply if the rent is received later than the 5th day of the month, regardless of the date Lessee mailed such rent payment. If a payment of rent is made by personal check which is later dishonored by the Lessee’s bank, the tenant shall be assessed any bank charges incurred by Lessor as a result of such dishonored check, in addition to the rent and late charge due on the payment of rent.

3. SECURITY DEPOSIT: Lessee has deposited with Lessor, the sum set forth above as a security deposit to be held by the Lessor in accordance with State or local law or ordinance to secure the faithful performance by the Lessee of all of the provisions contained in this lease. If Lessee performs all of the obligations as provided in this lease and pays all sums due Lessor, then Lessor, after the Lessee has surrendered possession of the premises and delivered the keys thereto to Lessor, shall refund said deposit to Lessee, including interest as provided by law. If Lessee has failed to perform or comply with any of the provisions of the lease, then Lessor may apply all or any part of the security deposit in payment of any sums due from Lessee to Lessor, or to pay for repair of any damages caused by Lessee, Lessee’s co-occupants or guests. The security deposit shall not be treated as advance payment of rent, and the Lessee shall not apply the security deposit as rent during the term of the lease unless Lessee obtains written permission from Lessor to do so.

4. POSSESSION: If Lessor cannot deliver possession of the premises at the commencement of the lease term, the rent shall be abated until the premises are available for occupancy by Lessee, or at Lessor’s option, the Lessee may terminate this lease upon written notice to Lessor. Lessor shall not be liable to Lessee for any consequential damages to Lessee arising as a result of Lessor’s inability to give Lessee possession of the premises at the commencement of the lease term.

5. CONDITION OF PREMISES: Lessee has examined the premises prior to accepting the same and prior to the execution of this lease, and is satisfied with the physical condition thereof, including but not limited to the heating, plumbing and smoke detectors. Lessee’s acceptance of possession shall constitute conclusive evidence of Lessee’s receipt of the premises in good order and repair as of the commencement of the lease term. Lessor or his agent has made no promises as to condition or repair to Lessee, unless they are expressed in this lease or a rider hereto signed by Lessee and Lessor or his agent, and no promises to decorate, alter or repair the premises have been made by Lessor or his agent, unless expressed herein.

6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: Except as provided by state or local law or ordinance, Lessor shall not be liable for any damage (a) occasioned by failure to keep Premises in repair; (b) for any loss or damage of or to Lessee’s property wherever located in or about the building or premises, or (c) acts or neglect of other tenants, occupants or others at the building.

7. LESSEE TO MAINTAIN: Lessee shall keep the premises and the fixtures and appliances therein in a clean and healthy condition, and in good working order, and in accordance with any and all ordinances applicable to the tenancy, at Lessee’s own expense, and upon the termination of this lease, for any reason, Lessee shall return the premises to Lessor in as good a condition of cleanliness and repair as at the commencement of this lease, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Lessee shall maintain all smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in good condition at all times, including replacing spent batteries as necessary. Lessee is responsible for the maintenance of the security deposit in payment of any sums due from Lessee to Lessor, or to pay for repair of any damages caused by Lessee, Lessee’s co-occupants or guests. Lessee shall maintain all smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in good condition at all times, including replacing spent batteries as necessary. Upon Lessee vacating the premises, if the premises are not clean and in good repair, Lessor or his agent may replace the premises in the same condition of repair and cleanliness as existed at the commencement of the lease term. Lessee agrees to pay Lessor for all expenses incurred by Lessor in replacing the premises in that condition. Lessee shall not cause or permit any waste, misuse or neglect to occur to the water, gas, utilities or any other portion of the premises.

8. USE OF PREMISES: The premises shall be occupied for residential purposes only, and only by the persons disclosed in this lease and on the Application for Lease submitted by Lessee in connection with the renting of the premises. Lessee shall not engage in any activity which will increase the rate of insurance on the property. Lessee shall not allow trash to accumulate in the common areas of the premises or allow objects to be thrown from windows. Lessee shall not hang objects out of windows or place objects on window sills or ledges, which may fall and injure persons below. Lessee shall not keep any pet in the premises without written permission being first obtained from Lessor. Lessee shall not use porches for cooking, sleeping or storage of furniture, bicycles or other items of personal property. In no case shall Lessee allow porches or decks to be overloaded or occupied by more people than would be reasonably safe based on the condition of such porch or deck.

9. APPLIANCES: Lessee shall not install any air conditioning, heating or cooling equipment or dishwashers or clothes washers or dryers or other appliances in any portion of the building or premises occupied by Lessee without first obtaining Lessor’s written permission to do so. All such appliances installed by Lessee shall be maintained in good working order by Lessee and removed by Lessee at the expiration of the term of the lease. Any damage caused by appliances installed by Lessee shall be the responsibility of Lessee and Lessee shall reimburse Lessor for the cost of repair of any damage caused by such appliances.

10. HEAT AND HOT WATER: Lessee agrees to provide Lessee with heat and hot water in sufficient quantities as may be required by law or ordinance during the term of the lease. If the Premises contains separate heating and/or hot water fixtures, then Lessee’s sole obligation shall be to provide Lessee such fixtures in good operating condition at the commencement of the lease, and Lessee shall be responsible for the utility costs for the operation thereof.
11. DISTURBANCE: Lessee agrees not to play televisions, radios or musical instruments or musical playback equipment in a manner which disturbs other tenants, and shall maintain the volume of such equipment at reasonable levels. In addition, Lessee agrees to limit playing of such equipment between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. to a volume that cannot be heard by persons outside of the premises.

12. ACCESS TO PREMISES: Lessee shall permit the Lessor access to the premises at all reasonable times, subject to the notice requirements of applicable law or ordinance, to inspect the premises and/or to make any necessary repairs, maintenance or improvements or supply necessary or agreed upon services, or to determine Lessor’s compliance with the provisions of this Lease. In the event of an emergency or where repairs in the building require access to Lessee’s premises, Lessor may enter without prior notice to Lessee, without the same being considered a forcible entry by Lessor. Lessee’s failure to provide such access shall be a breach of this lease, and Lessor shall be entitled to terminate this lease in the event such access is denied by Lessee.

13. SUBLET OR ASSIGNMENT: Lessee shall not sublet the premises or any part thereof, nor assign this lease, without obtaining Lessor’s prior written permission to sublet or assign. Lessor shall not unreasonably withhold permission and will accept a reasonable sublease as provided by ordinance.

14. HOLDING OVER: If the Lessee remains in possession of the premises or any part thereof after the termination of the lease by lapse of time or otherwise, then the Lessor may, at Lessor’s option, consider such holding over as constituting a month-to-month tenancy, upon the terms of this lease except at double the monthly rental specified above. Lessee shall also pay to Lessor all damages sustained by Lessor resulting from Lessee’s retaining possession of the premises. In the event Lessor accepts a payment of rent for a period after the expiration of this lease in the absence of any specific written agreement, continued occupancy shall be deemed a month-to-month tenancy, on the same terms and conditions as herein provided, except for the double rent provision, to the extent permitted by state or local law or ordinance.

15. FORCIBLE DETAINER: If Lessee defaults in the payment of rent or any part thereof, Lessor may distraint for rent and shall have a lien on Lessee’s property for all monies due Lessor, or if Lessee defaults in the performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained, Lessor or his agents, at Lessor’s option, may terminate this lease and, if abandoned or vacated, may re-enter the premises. Non-performance of any of Lessee’s obligations shall constitute a default and forfeiture of this lease, and Lessee’s failure to take action on account of Lessee’s default shall not constitute a waiver of said default.

16. LIABILITY FOR RENT: Lessee shall continue paying rent and all other charges for the Premises to the end of the term of this lease, whether or not the Premises becomes vacant by reason of abandonment, breach of the lease by Lessee, wrongful termination by Lessee or if the Lessee has been evicted for breach of this lease, to the extent said obligation for rent has not been mitigated, abated or discharged, in whole or in part, by any law or ordinance. Notwithstanding any of the provisions contained in this section, the Landlord shall make a good faith effort to re-let the Premises (but not in priority to other vacancies) and if the Premises is re-let, Lessee shall be responsible for the balance of the rent, costs, advertising costs and attorney’s fees in connection therewith.

17. BINDING EFFECT: If Lessee shall violate any covenant or provision of this lease, Lessor shall have the right to terminate this lease or Lessee’s right to possession pursuant to the lease upon appropriate legal notice to Lessee. If Lessee assigns this lease, whether with or without Lessor’s permission as required herein, the covenants and conditions contained in this lease shall nonetheless be binding on the assignee as if assignee had signed the lease. Nothing contained in this paragraph 17 shall preclude Lessor from commencing legal proceedings against any assignee of this lease who obtained possession from the party named as Lessee in this Lease without Lessor’s written permission as required in paragraph 13 above.

18. ATTORNEY’S FEES: If Lessor commences legal proceedings to enforce the covenants of this lease due to Lessee’s breach thereof, Lessee shall pay Lessor’s reasonable attorney’s fees incurred to enforce Lessor’s compliance with the terms of this Lease.

19. CONTINUOUS OCCUPANCY: Lessee shall maintain continuous occupancy of the premises, and not allow the same to remain vacant for any period in excess of ten days without notifying the Lessor of such vacancy. Lessee shall not allow persons other than those authorized by the Lease to occupy the premises as guests for periods exceeding seven consecutive days during the term of the Lease for any reason.

20. REMEDIES CUMULATIVE: Lessor’s remedies contained in this Lease are cumulative and are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other remedies granted to Lessor pursuant to this Lease or applicable State or Local Law or Ordinance.

21. FIRE OR CASUALTY: If the Premises, Building or any part thereof shall become uninhabitable as a result of fire, explosion or other casualty, Lessor and Lessee shall have all of the rights provided by state or local law or ordinance. For purposes of this paragraph, Lessor’s good faith effort to obtain insurance adjustments, settlements or awards to obtain sufficient funds to perform repairs made necessary due to fire, explosion or other casualty shall be deemed diligent efforts to repair the Building within a reasonable time.

22. SECURITY GATES OR BARS: The installation by Lessee of any metal gate or bars on doors or windows is dangerous and strictly prohibited. Lessee shall immediately remove same upon notice by Lessor to Lessee and/or Lessor shall immediately remove any such installation at Lessee’s expense if Lessee shall fail to do so upon notice. Lessee hereby grants Lessor access to the leased premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of removing such gates or bars. The cost of repairing any damage to the leased premises caused by the installation and/or removal or such gates or bars shall be paid by Lessee upon demand by Lessor therefore, in addition to all costs of enforcement of this paragraph 22, including reasonable attorney’s fees incurred by Lessor in enforcing this provision. In addition to the foregoing, the installation of such gates or bars shall constitute a breach of this lease, entitling Lessor, at Lessor’s sole option, to terminate Lessee’s right to possession of the premises pursuant to this lease and commence proceedings to dispossess Lessee from the premises.

23. MECHANIC’S LIENS: Lessee shall not place or allow to be placed on the Premises, the building or elsewhere on the real property, any mechanic’s lien or any other claim for lien for any repairs, maintenance, alterations or modifications performed by, or ordered or contradicted by, the Lessee, whether or not same were rightfully performed or ordered by the Lessee. The placement of any such lien shall constitute a breach of this lease and upon ten days’ notice to cure said lien or lien claim, Lessor may terminate Lessee’s tenancy or right to possession. In addition, Lessor shall have the right to satisfy and remove said lien without regard to the merits thereof and Lessor shall be responsible for the damages incurred in removing the lien, along with other damages, costs and attorney’s fees incurred by Lessor in connection therewith.

24. RULES AND REGULATIONS: Lessee agrees to obey the Rules and Regulations contained in this Lease, and any attachments and inclusions hereto as well as any further reasonable Rules and Regulations established by the Lessor during the pendency of this lease.
The Rules and Regulations are hereby incorporated into and made a part of this lease. Failure to observe the Rules and Regulations shall be deemed to be a material breach of this lease, and in event of such breach, Lessor shall be entitled to terminate Lessee’s right to possession under the Lease upon ten days’ notice, and shall further be to such rights and remedies as provided by applicable state or local law or ordinance.

25. SUBORDINATION OF LEASE: This lease is subordinate to all mortgages which may now or hereafter affect the real property of which the Premises forms a part. The recordation of this lease, or any memorandum thereof by Lessee shall constitute a material breach of this lease.

26. SEVERABILITY: If any clause, phrase, provision or portion of this lease, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall be determined to be an invalid or unenforceable under applicable law or ordinance, such event shall not affect, impair or render invalid any clause, phrase, provision or portion hereof, nor shall it affect the applicabilty of any clause, provision or portion hereof to other persons or circumstances, and the lease shall be interpreted in accordance with said ordinance.

with the Lessor’s prior consent, and subject to the conditions set forth in any such consent. No animals are permitted without a leash in any public areas of the premises.

10. Lessee shall dispose of garbage and refuse by securely bagging or

- To provide a tenant with at least 30 days written notice if the rental agreement will not be renewed. If the landlord fails to give the required written notice, the tenant may remain in the dwelling unit for 60 days under the same terms and conditions as the last month of the existing agreement. (eff. 1-1-92) (Mun. Code Ch. 5-12-130 (j))
- To not enforce prohibited lease provisions. (Mun Code Ch. 5-12-140)

TELEPHONE NOTICES (MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-110)

Minor Defects

- If the landlord fails to maintain the property in compliance with the Code and the tenant or the tenant’s family or guests are not responsible for the failure, the tenant may:
  1) Request in writing that the landlord make repairs within 14 days, and if after 14 days repairs are not made, the tenant may immediately terminate the lease. Tenant must deliver possession and move out in 30 days or tenant’s notice is considered withdrawn. (eff. 1-1-92)

Major Defects

- If the landlord fails to maintain the property in compliance with the Code, and the failure renders the premises not reasonably fit and habitable, the tenant may request in writing that the landlord make repairs within 14 days. If after 14 days repairs are not made, the tenant may immediately terminate the lease. Tenant must deliver possession and move out in 30 days or tenant’s notice is considered withdrawn. (eff. 1-1-92)

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ESSENTIAL SERVICES (HEAT, RUNNING OR HOT WATER, ELECTRICITY, GAS OR PLUMBING) (MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-110E)

- If, contrary to the lease, an essential service is not provided, or if the landlord fails to maintain the building in material compliance with the Code to such an extent that such failure constitutes an immediate danger to the health and safety of the tenant, and the tenant or tenant’s family or guests are not responsible for such failure, after giving written notice, the tenant may do ONE of the following:
  1) Procure substitute service, and upon presenting paid receipts to the landlord, deduct the cost from the rent; OR
  2) File suit against the landlord and recover damages based on the reduced value of the dwelling unit; OR
  3) Procure substitute housing and be excused from paying rent for that period. The tenant may also recover from the landlord the cost of substitute housing up to an amount equal to the monthly rent for each month or portion thereof; OR
  4) Request that the landlord correct the failure within 24 hours and if the landlord fails to do so, withhold the monthly rent an amount that reasonably reflects the reduced value of its premises. Rent withholding cannot start until after the 24 hours expires and applies only to days past the 24-hour waiting period; OR (eff. 1-1-92)
5) Request that the landlord correct the failure within 72 hours and if the landlord fails to do so, terminate the rental agreement. If the rental agreement is terminated, the tenant must deliver possession and move out within 30 days or the notice of termination is considered withdrawn. (eff. 1-1-92)

Note: Remedies 4) and 5) may not be used if the failure is due to the utility provider’s failure to provide service. For the purposes of this section only, the notice a tenant provides must be in writing, delivered to the address the landlord has given the tenant as an address to which notices should be sent. If the landlord does not inform the tenant of an address, the tenant may deliver written notice to the last known address of the landlord or by any other reasonable means designed in good faith to provide written notice to the landlord. (eff.1-1-92)

FIRE OR CASUALTY DAMAGE [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-110 (g)]
• If a fire damages the unit to an extent that it is in material noncompliance with the Code and the tenant, tenant’s family or guests are not responsible for the fire or accident, the tenant may:
  1) Move out immediately, but if this is done, the tenant must provide written notice to the landlord of the intention to terminate within 14 days after moving out.
  2) The tenant may stay in the unit, if it is legal, but if the tenant stays and cannot use a portion of the unit because of damage, the rent may be reduced to reflect the reduced value of the unit.
  3) If the tenant stays, and the landlord fails to diligently carry out the work, the tenant may notify the landlord, in writing, within 14 days after the tenant becomes aware that the work is not being diligently carried out, of the tenant’s intention to terminate the rental agreement and move out.

SUBLEASES [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-120]
• The landlord must accept a reasonable subtenant offered by the tenant without charging additional fees.
• If a tenant moves prior to the end of the rental agreement, the landlord must make a good faith effort to find a new tenant at a fair rent.
• If the landlord is unsuccessful in re-renting the unit, the tenant remains liable for the rent under the rental agreement, as well as the landlord’s cost of advertising.

WHAT HAPPENS IF A TENANT PAYS RENT LATE? [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-140 (h)]
• If the tenant fails to pay rent on time, the landlord may charge a late fee of $10.00 per month on rents under $500 plus 5 percent per month on that part of the rent that exceeds $500.00 (i.e., for a $450.00 monthly rent the late fee is $10.00, for a $700 monthly rent the late fee is $10 plus 5% of $200.00 or $20.00 total) (eff. 1-1-92)

WHAT HAPPENS IF A TENANT PAYS RENT DUE AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF THE TIME PERIOD SET FORTH IN A TERMINATION NOTICE? [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-140 (g) CH. 5-12-130 (g)]
• If the landlord accepts the rent due knowing that there is a default in payment, the tenant may stay.

LANDLORD REMEDIES [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-130]
• If the tenant fails to pay rent, the landlord, after giving five days written notice to the tenant, may terminate the rental agreement.
• If the tenant fails to comply with the Code or the rental agreement, the landlord, after giving 10 days written notice to the tenant, may terminate the rental agreement if tenant fails to correct the violation.
• If the tenant fails to comply with the Code or the rental agreement, the landlord may request in writing that the tenant comply as promptly as conditions permit in the case of emergency, or within 14 days. If the breach is not corrected in the time period specified, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit and have the necessary work done. In this case, the tenant shall be responsible for all costs of repairs.

LOCKOUTS [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-160]
This section applies to every residential rental unit in Chicago. There are no exceptions.
• It is illegal for a landlord to lock out a tenant, or change locks, or remove doors of a rental unit, or cut off heat, utility or water service, or to do anything which interferes with the tenant’s use of the apartment.
• All lockouts are illegal and the Police Department is responsible for enforcement against such illegal activity. (eff. 1-1-92) (Police Special Order 93-12)
• The landlord shall be fined $200 to $500 for each day the lockout occurs or continues.
• The tenant may sue the landlord to recover possession of the unit and twice the actual damages sustained or two months’ rent, whichever is greater.

PROHIBITION ON RETALIATORY CONDUCT BY LANDLORD [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-150]
• A tenant who has the right to complain or testify in good faith about their tenancy to governmental agencies or officials, police, media, community groups, tenant unions or the landlord. A landlord is prohibited from retaliating by terminating or threatening to terminate a tenancy, increasing rent, decreasing services, bringing or threatening to bring an eviction action, or refusing to renew a lease agreement.

ATTORNEY’S FEES [MUN. CODE CH. 5-12-180]
• Except in eviction actions, the prevailing plaintiff in any action arising from the application of this Ordinance shall be entitled to recover all court costs and reasonable attorney’s fees. (eff. 1-1-92)

WHERE CAN I GET A COPY OF THE ORDINANCE?
• For a copy of the Ordinance, visit the Office of the City Clerk, Room 107, City Hall, 121 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois or view it at the Municipal Reference Library, Harold Washington Library, 5th Floor, 400 S. State Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Forclosure Assistance Information for Renters (F.A.I.R.)

F.A.I.R Foreclosure Assistance Information for Renters
Helping Renters Impacted by Foreclosure

Foreclosures can affect anyone. If you are a renter whose building is in foreclosure, there are laws that protect you and that govern what can and cannot happen during the foreclosure process. The City of Chicago wants to make sure that you know the law and what rights, responsibilities and resources you have if the building where you live is in foreclosure.

Your RIGHTS

Renters have the following legal rights when their building experiences foreclosure:

- Within seven days of being served a foreclosure complaint, the owner or landlord of your building must notify you in writing.
- If a landlord has already been named in a foreclosure suit, he must disclose this to you before you sign a lease.
- If the landlord fails to notify you of foreclosure, you may be eligible to terminate your lease (see Section 5-12-095 of the Municipal Code and/or seek legal advice before utilizing this option).
- Tenants who have been summoned to court must be given at least 90 days notice to vacate the property.
- If eviction is due to a building foreclosure, the tenant’s eviction record will be sealed if they are current in their rent or have made good faith attempts to pay.
- If a foreclosure has been filed your lease is still valid.
- Tenants must continue to pay rent to be eligible to receive these protections.
- The law prohibits any threat or attempt to lock tenants or their possessions out of their units.
- If a foreclosure has been filed, your lease is still valid.

Your RESPONSIBILITIES

It is important to make sure you do all you can to protect yourself if your building is in foreclosure:

- Maintain good records, including copies of your lease, proof of security deposit and proof of rent payments/receipts.
- Pay the rent on time with a money order or check and document attempts to make payments.
- Be alert for warning signs that the building may be in foreclosure—utility shut-offs, landlord not collecting rent.
- Keep identification and proof of tenancy handy in the event of an eviction order.
- Open all mail even if it says “occupant” or “unknown occupant.”
- Seek legal assistance or advice to understand your rights.
- Be aware of unscrupulous people claiming to be the new landlord and seek legal help or contact law enforcement authorities if you suspect a scam.
