CHICAGO – The Chicago Housing Authority's Charles A. Hayes Family Investment Center, in the heart of the historic Bronzeville community, has long been a valuable resource for public housing residents and others in need of economic assistance.

The center, named after Chicago's late Congressman, helps low-income Chicagoans and those with disabilities in pursuing jobs and other opportunities. The center will host an Open House and Health Fair from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, July 30, 2011 at the center, 4859 S. Wabash Avenue.

The community event will allow families to find out more about the facility and the services that it offers. There will also be health screenings and seminars, as well as information. Entertainment will include the Jesse White Tumblers and the South Shore Drill Team.
