CHICAGO – Last week, more than 500 seniors from the Chicago Housing Authority showed up to watch Chicago entertainer Holle Thee Maxwell. This week, CHA is expecting another big turnout for guitarist Bernard Crump.

Crump, a member of the band “Gentleman of Leisure,” will be the featured entertainer when he performs at the CHA’s Senior Westside Music Festival from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 25, 2011 at Lorraine Hansberry Apartments, 5670 W. Lake.

Crump is President and founder of the MECCA musicians’ network. He will perform at 12:30 p.m.

The Westside Music Festival is last of three music festivals sponsored by CHA. It provides food, dancing and an afternoon of fun for CHA’s senior population. It is co-sponsored by The Habitat Company.
