Chicago Bulls, CHA Honor Stellar Students for the Holidays
More than 400 CHA kids receive toy, tour, food and fun

CHICAGO (December 14, 2011) – The Chicago Bulls and the Chicago Housing Authority hosted the 12th Annual Kids Holiday Party at the Museum of Science and Industry Sunday, December 11, 2011.

The children, between the ages of 6 and 12, were invited to the museum for an afternoon of holiday fun, which included 400 gifts provided by BMO Harris Bank, and tours of the museum exhibits.

A part of the tour included the remarkable “Science Storms” exhibit, which included an interactive display featuring All-Star Chicago Bulls guard Derrick Rose as he provides virtual coaching on the science behind shooting a basketball.

Event attendees included former Bulls broadcaster Bill Wennington, a member of three NBA Championship-winning teams; Leslie Foreman, wife of Chicago Bulls General Manager Gar Foreman; and former Bulls forward Sidney Green.

Wennington and Green provided the youngsters with words of encouragement; while Foreman revved the children up with a resounding “Let’s go Bulls!” chant.

The event concluded with the children selecting a toy and meeting Santa Claus himself. The tables were stocked with everything from Barbie dolls, to WWF action figures to handheld games.

Lunch was provided by the Black McDonalds Operators Association (BMOA), Hinckley Springs and Edy’s Grand Ice Cream.
