Chicago Park District Membership

CHA residents can join summer and year-round programs with the Chicago Park District.

How to Sign Up Registration Dates \(Park District Site\)

Program Overview

The Chicago Housing Authority teams up with the Chicago Park District to give memberships to CHA residents ages 6-12. With this membership, youth can join Summer Day Camp and other Park Kids Programs in the fall, winter, and spring at any park with these programs.

Park memberships allow CHA residents to join programs at low to no cost. CHA also has year-round special programs for residents with disabilities of all ages.

Benefits of the Program

- Keep your child safe, happy, and healthy with fun activities and sports, including swimming.
- Help your child make new friends and build social skills.
- Save money with affordable program options.
- Foster a sense of community and pride in your child by getting them involved.

Eligibility for the Program

- Must be a current CHA resident to get the CHA membership
- Must 6-12 years old or any age for residents with disabilities

How to Sign Up

1. Create an account on the Chicago Park District website.

If you've already done this, move to step 2.
