CHA Scholars "Take Flight" at Annual Networking Event

Published on February 21, 2024

Nearly 100 CHA college students joined representatives from 18 Chicago-area corporations, including BMO Harris, the Obama Foundation, and Cabrera Capital Markets, for the agency's annual Take Flight Networking and Recruiting event. Sponsored by Springboard to Success, CHA's non-profit partner, the check-in event is designed to keep CHA scholars on track to obtaining a degree and gaining access to 2024 internship and employment opportunities. In addition to networking opportunities, students were offered resume reviews, raffles and professional headshots.
